ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is a moment of extreme happiness for me to express my hearty gratitude to all those who helped me in the successful completion of this study.

First of all, I thank God, the almighty for giving me the patience and courage for conducting this study and helping me in every walk of life and blessing me with all that I have got.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed guide Dr. R. Sheela Devi, Lecturer and Head I/C, department of Physiology, Dr. A.L.M. Post Graduate Institute of Basic Medical Sciences, University of Madras, Taramani campus, Chennai, for giving encouragement and guided me without reserve, all through my PhD studies and stay in Chennai. It has been an honour and privilege for me to work under her for this study.

With respectful salutation to my beloved Professor Late. Dr. A. Namasivayam, I acknowledge my profound gratitude to him for the invaluable help and encouragement he had extended towards me till his last breath.

I am thankful to Professor. N. Suthanthirarajan, former Head of the department, Physiology for his kind help during my early days of research work.

I am thankful to Mr. R. Ravindran, Lecturer, Department of Physiology for his valuable advice and help.

Very special heartfelt thanks to my colleagues, my fellow research scholars Mr. Srikumar R, Mr. Jeya Parthasarathy N, Mr. Manikandan S, Mr. Senthivelan M, Mr. Samson J, Mr. Rajamani R, Mr. Sathyanarayan G, Mr. Muthuvel A, Mr. Vijay Kumar R, Mr. Kanthesh, Mr. Omprakash and Mr. Prakash Pillai. Without the unconditioned and timely help by these colleagues, this study would have not possible.
I am thankful to the non-teaching staff members of department of Physiology for their kind help and assistance in many ways.

I owe a great deal of appreciation and gratitude to Dr. G.V. Gouda, Professor and Head, department of Botany, Bhandarkar’s college, Mangala Gangotri, Mangalore University, Karnataka for the help rendered in identification and collection of plant Tinospora cordifolia.

It is my pleasure to express my thanks to my teacher and friend Dr. C.N. Chandrashekar, Associate Professor of Physiology, Kasturba Medical College, Manipal, Karnataka and Dr. Praveen Kumar Shetty, Assistant Professor of Biochemistry, SDM Medical college and Hospitals, Dharwar, Karnataka for their constant help, sharing their knowledge and views with me and their encouragement during my studies.

I am grateful to Sri. Sadashiva Bhat B, Principal, V.E.M.S, Kundapur, Karnataka, Dr. K. Rekha, Lecturer, department of Pathology and Dr. D. Shaktishekaran, Professor of Biochemistry, Dr. ALM PGIBMS, Taramani, Chennai for their invaluable help and suggestions during my research work.

A special word of thanks to my mother Smt. Sharada Puranik, wife Anitha Puranik, son Karthik N. Puranik and my family members for their immense affection, constant encouragement and moral support without which this research work would have not been successfully completed.

Lastly, I am extremely grateful to Dr. V. N. Biradar, ex Director of KIMS, Professor S.B. Kulkarni, former HOD, Dr. B.C. Vastrad, Professor and Head of the department of Physiology, Karnataka Institute of Medical Sciences (KIMS), Hubli, Karnataka for their kind help and Government of Karnataka for deputing me for PhD studies.
