ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with great pleasure that I place on record my utmost sense of gratitude to my research supervisor and the guide Dr. A. Karuppih, Professor, Department of Sociology, University of Madras who has with his consistent guidance, constant involvement and vigilant supervision, provided me the necessary strength, motivation and inspiration to carry out this work successfully.

I am also immensely grateful to Dr. D. Jayalakshmi, Professor and Head, Department of Sociology, University of Madras for her kindness, and encouragement.

It gives me a great pleasure to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to Dr. P.S. Balasubramanian, Professor and Head (Retd), Department of Education, University of Madras for going through each and every line of this thesis and also for suggesting improvements and necessary corrections.

I express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to Dr. R. Thilagaraj, Professor and Head, Department of Criminology, Dr. D. Kumaran, Professor, Department of Education, University of Madras, Dr. M.V. Sudhakaran, Senior Lecturer, Department of Psychology, Presidency College, Chennai, and Dr. V. Kasirao, Documentation Officer, C.L.R.I., Adyar, Chennai, Prof. V. Saravanan and Mr. P. David Paul for their encouragement and helpful assistance.

My heartfelt thanks to Mr. P. Mohan, Mrs. Mallika Mohan and Friends for having given a whole hearted support and help for the successful completion of this research.
I would like to convey my warm gratitude to M/s. Project Documentation Centre, Triplicane for their assistance in documentation of this thesis.

I am grateful to my wife Mrs. Menaka Rengaraj and my daughters Anu and Lakshmi who encouraged and gave me moral support throughout my research work and I also sincerely thank all the Principals of the School, Teachers and Students who have promptly and kindly responded to my questions.

M. RENGARAJ