ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

PROFESSOR Dr.N.BALU

THE GUIDE is the custodian of intangible infrastructure for any consummate research. This research is a result of unbridled freedom, afforded by my learned guide PROFESSOR Dr.N.BALU, in search of justice and assertion of the rule of law. A salubrious atmosphere devoid of pedagogic persiflage and copious fair play in interpersonal relations with PROFESSOR Dr.N.BALU enabled the researcher to examine the postulates of a vicious statute. Inspite of his exhaustive page wise scrutiny there were no fetters on constructive criticism or indiscriminate pruning of the text. Nor was there any parsimony in encouragement to the enterprise. Such was the liberty, erudite guidance and personal care extended by PROFESSOR Dr.N.BALU to this research. At a time when midget human minds are still not alien to academic research, PROFESSOR Dr.N.BALU is a goliath in his empathy and concern for scholars. If his expertise as a savant in law and wizard in research techniques gave me the choice inputs, his signal virtues as a human being carved the best out of me. Protocol did not interrupt my interactions with him. His access was equally facile even when he was in the U.S. My indebtedness to him is thus infinite. Thanks cannot accommodate my feelings of gratitude. It will be my endeavour forever, to deserve his perspicacious advice and patronage and emulate his sublime principles and moral rectitude. I salute PROFESSOR DR.N.BALU.

Mr.E.VENKATACHALAM, I.A.S., retd.

India is yet to become a paradise for learning. Research and reason are resolutely resisted. Illusion and artifice continue to intoxicate us. Bureaucracy is also ailing in this syndrome. Scepticism greeted my zeal. Exceptionally, however, Mr.E.Venkatachalam I.A.S retd., formerly I.G. Registration, a man of letters himself, recognised my passion for learning and readily granted permission to enrol for this august programme in law. His timely assistance will be etched in my memory forever.

Mr.PRADEEP YADAV, I.A.S.

Occupational constraints and inborn inertia delayed my direct devotion to completion of the research. An ardent champion of rule of law, architect of the historic reforms in stamp law and a twenty first century master in computerized administration, Mr.PRADEEP YADAV I.A.S, countenanced my concern for plugging revenue leakage and conceded my request for long leave on loss of pay. I would treasure this grand gesture of this extraordinary officer.
Mr. N. DANAM JEYAN I.A.S., Inspector General of Registration:

An illustrious officer with lot of compassion for officials of the department, I am confident of earning his approbation of the findings particularly on additional sources of revenue generation.

Mr. M. SIVAGNANAM I.A.S., retd., formerly Chief Secretary to the Government of Gujarat State and Member, Tamil Nadu Planning Commission and

Mr. KADIRVEL I.R.S., retd., Add.Commissioner Income Tax, Department of Income Tax, have enriched this work by their unique contributions, moral support and encouragement.

Mr. N. NALLAMUTHU B.Sc., D.I.G. Regn., Department of Registration:-

Even the best of legal luminaries cannot understand or advise on the practical working of the Stamp Act. Mr. N. NALLAMUTHU B.Sc., D.I.G of Registration fulfilled the need for a blend of expert knowledge of the statute and first hand experience of superintending the enforcement of the Act. Casting aside the hierarchical superiority, he helped the researcher in fortifying his knowledge of practical enforcement of the law. His prolix discussions have embellished the contents of this thesis.
Dr. T. RAMASWAMY M.A., M.L (cont.,) M.L.(Prop.) Ph.d(Law), D.Litt (Law)

Only a research attempt would reveal the reluctance of professionals to share their fund of knowledge. Contrary to this general trend, Dr. T. RAMASWAMY M.A., M.L (cont.,) M.L.(Prop.) Ph.d(Law), D.Litt (Law) helped me generously and pepped up my spirits throughout the final stages of this research.

Participation in merrymaking is common. Toiling together is rare. Here are those who strained themselves in discussing and debating the research subject with me.

Mr. S. RAJARAM DAVEY B.A (ENG.LIT.,)

Mr. G. PRAKASAM B.A., B.L., Sub-Registrar, Office of the Inspector General of Registration, Madras-28

c) Mr. V. SURESH B.Com., F.CA., I.C.W.A., CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT

d) Mr. MANUEL THOMAS B.Com., F.CA., CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT

e) Mr. BIJAI SUNDAR B.Com., B.L., ADVOCATE

f) Mr. VENKATA VARADHAN B.Com., B.L., ADVOCATE

g) Mr. DHANANJEYA B.A (ENG.LIT.,)
BEHIND THE SCENE PERSONS:

There are always persons behind the scene. Their inputs constitute the foundation and superstructure of the work.

Mr. S. SUNDARAMOORTHY B.Sc., B.L., O/o The I.G. Registration a paragon of amity, did not flinch in his marathon assistance of procuring books and other materials from various quarters.

M/s. T. VENKATACHALAM and S. DINESH of M/s. RAMALINGAM AND ASSOCIATES morally supported and physically assisted in the endeavours of this work.

Mr. B. VENTHAN Computer Hardware Engineer valiantly combated the virus in our system and vicariously made up for the deficiency in service of the supplier.

Ms. N. RAJALEKSHMI sedulously keyed the text into the computer and took out impressive prints of the same. Her moral support and encouragement coupled with adroitness and assiduity have created the graphic substance of this thesis.

My mother Mrs. PRABAVATHI MUTHURAMA REDDY has been the father of all the accomplishments and attributes in me.
I owe my inspiration to undertake this research to my eldest brother DR.K. HEMANT KUMAR Ph.D (Chem. Eng) U.S.A., who has always been a parental support and a spiritual guide.

My immediately elder brother Dr.K.BAGAWANDOSS Ph.D (Env.Engg.) U.S.A., propped up my research by culling out rare records including seventeenth century judgements from the Library of the Oxford University U.K.

My younger brother SHRI. AUROBINDO KESAVALU Software Engineer, U.S.A., co-ordinated the import of textbooks on English Stamp Duty Land Tax. His moral and material supports have stood by me in this earnest venture.

My brother-in-law Mr.P.CHAKRAVARTHY, my sister Mrs.MEERADEVI CHAKRAVARTHY, my niece Ms.C.VRIKSHA JANANI,

My wife GANGL RAVI and my daughter R.BHAVISHYA VAANI,

My cousin Mr.K.MOHAN Development Officer, L.I.C., extended their moral support and encouragement to this mission.
I would like to remember my late uncle Mr. B. RAMDOSS REDDY and my aunt Mrs. VARALAKSHMI REDDY for their moral support and encouragement till they passed away last year.

Mr. D. PREM KUMAR of the University of Madras has been and will ever be of timely assistance to all Research Scholars of the University. He has done the institution proud. I sincerely record my appreciation of his services to me.

ST. BEDES ANGLO INDIAN HIGH SCHOOL MADRAS, LOYOLA COLLEGE MADRAS, MADRAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, V.R. LAW COLLEGE NELLORE, THE INSTITUTE OF COMPANY SECRETARIES OF INDIA, Dr. AMBEDKAR LAW COLLEGE MADRAS, MY ALMA MATERS, have made me what I am.

I AM AND WILL EVER BE INFINITELY GRATEFUL TO THE UNIQUE ROLES PLAYED BY THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN RESPECTFULLY AND AFFECTIONATELY ACKNOWLEDGED IN THE FOREGOING PARAS.