His ability to understand students from their perspective is remarkable.

I would like to thank Mr. Shyam Das Vaisnav and Mr. Dolaram Bhati who helped me during the data collection of my research. It was their co-operation which enabled me to congregate very significant data for my research.

I appreciate and value the time and patience of the Gram Sevak and MGNREGA beneficiaries who spared their valuable time and provided me with all important information during my field survey.

There are many other individuals whose names flash across my mind when I enlist those who have helped me. It is practically not possible to mention their name separately here but I understand their contribution in this work and hence I express my thanks towards them collectively.
