ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher wishes to express sincere feelings of gratitude for all those who made this research work possible.

I deem it my great privilege and pleasure to pursue the research work under the able guidance of my beloved teacher, Prof. K. RATHNAIAH, Chairman, BOS in Sociology & Social Work, Department of Sociology, Member, Executive Council and Rector, S.V. University, Tirupati. I express my deep sense of gratitude to my research guide for his care taken in my completion of this work. I am deeply indebted to him for his able guidance and encouragement during this work. Inspite of his multifarious commitments, he took keen interest in going through the manuscript and offered valuable suggestions as and when required.

I am thankful to Prof. D. Venkateswarlu, Prof. M. Hanumantha Rao, Prof. B. Rama Murthy, Prof. M.P.N. Raju, Head, Prof. V. Reddappa Naidu, Dr. G. Stanley Jayakumar, and Dr. B. Ananda Reddy for their valuable suggestions.

For my research work, the Scheduled Caste Women Respondents in Chittoor district readily agreed to co-operate while eliciting information pertaining to the study. Throughout my field work, they were quite cordial, hospitable, cheerful and encouraging. I sincerely thank and acknowledge the support given by them.

I am equally thankful to the authorities of ICSSR Regional Office, Hyderabad for sanction of study grant for my research work. I express my warm gratitude to the staff of respective Libraries Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati, Osmania University, Hyderabad, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur and Nagarjuna University, Guntur for their help in collecting the literature and necessary data.
I express my deep sense of gratitude to my ever beloved Parents Sri B. Krishnaiah and Smt.B. Narayamamma for their moral support and constant encouragement.

I am worth love to my dear brothers B. Murali Mohan and B. Prasanna Kumar for their encouragement to complete my Ph.D. work.

I wish to acknowledge the assistance and co-operation given by Mrs. Poorna Rathnaiah for her encouragement during the entire research work period.

My heartfull thanks are due to my colleagues N. Rukmini and Mehar Basha for their unstent co-operation.

My thanks to Mrs. Radha Rani, Assistant and G. Srinari, Department of Sociology, for their affectionate enquiry about my thesis work.

I express my sincere gratitude to Sri A. Subramanyam, Retd. Lecturer in English of S.V. Junior College, Tirupati, for his editing my thesis.

I feel it is bounden duty to express my due gratitude to Mr T. Sathish Kumar, (Siddhartha Photostats, S.V.U. Campus, Tirupati) for his good typing of the thesis upto my satisfaction.

Finally, I record my sincere thanks to all those who have helped me directly or indirectly for this work to come out in the present form successfully.

B. SASI PRIYA