ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am thankful to Almighty, for the divine grace bestowed on me to take up and complete this research work successfully. The thought of getting related to something important and useful to the society always fascinated me since my childhood and it inspired me in each and every step of life.

I express my gratitude to Sri Venkateswara University Administration, Department of Population Studies and Social Work, and Principal's office for providing me all infrastructural support and moral support. To carry my research without any obstacles.

I express my deepest sense of gratitude to my Supervisor, Prof. Venkiteela Ravindra Kumar, Department of Population Studies and Social Work, Sri Venkateswara University. I have been amazingly fortunate to have such a Supervising Teacher who gave me the freedom to explore on my own, and at the same time the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. He used to review my thesis progress, give his valuable suggestions and made corrections. His unflinching courage and conviction will always inspire me to complete the thesis and continue my future responsibilities.

I am thankful to Prof. Lakshmamma, Head of Department Population Studies and Social Work, Prof. Hari, Chairman, BOS, Prof. Vinayaka Murthy, and Department Librarian Smt. Sumthi and other Non-teaching staff, for providing constant encouragement.

I express my gratitude and thanks to Nelavoy Vinodh, who was with me all the time and encouraging me during my fatal days and imparted courage into my mind.

I am expressing thanks to my co-researchers Mahendra Choudari, Venkiteela Satheesh Naidu, Ranjith Kumar, T.C. Narasimhulu, Ragala Ananda Goud, Lekkala Rajasekhar Reddy, Reddy, Shailendra, Dr. Seeshadri Naidu, Dr.
Harikrishna Yadav, Pathipati Vivek Chowdari, Kallu Vishnuvardhan Reddy for their company and constant encouragement.

There are unforgettable people in my life who taken care of me from my childhood. This is the time for me to recognize and help. The people who deserve my heartfelt are Perala Chandra Sekhar Rao, Manthi Srinivasulu, Guntha Lakshman, Chattapalli Narasimha Reddy, Katakonda Guru Prasad, S. Balakrishna, K Yreddy Rajasekhar Reddy, Nagothu Ramesh Naidu and Ponugonti Arun Kumar.

It’s time to remember my friends Katepalli Reddappa, Puli Narenra Kumar Reddy, M. Damodar Reddy, Ramakrishna, Vhuma Reddy, Pasupuleti Reddy Sekhar, and Kammohan Reddy for their constant encouragement and support to complete my Ph.D work.

I am indebted to some persons who made my mind always pleasure and active, and this is the time to remind and thank them. My friends are Aditya, Dinakara, Sunny, and others; I wish them all the best.

No word will suffice in expressing my reverence and obligation to my parents Sri Poithui Reddappa Naidu, and Smt. Poithui Kumari, and my brother Maddipatla Surya Prakash, for their inspiring encouragement and endless love and affection.

I would like to thank All Respondents, who cooperated with me during Interview.

(P Sreekanth)