Acknowledgements

I express my deep regards and gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Pratima Rohatgi, Associate Professor, Department of Geography, University of Calcutta, for her guidance throughout this work. The knowledge that she has passed on to me is invaluable.

I am also thankful to all of my teachers of the Department of Geography for their help and suggestion and all the staffs for their cooperation directly and indirectly for this work.

I would like to acknowledge the professional contribution to all The Urban Planners, Block Development Officers, Education and Health Departments of Budge Budge, Maheshtala, Pujali, Baruipur and Sonarpur municipalities and the respective Block Development Offices for their kind cooperation in collection of information. I am also thankful to the headmasters of the schools and the employees of different government and non-government health institutions for their help. I am also grateful to the local people of the study area for their kind cooperation without which the vast field work was not possible.

I extend my sincere gratitude to all the officials of various government and non-government organizations like Kolkata Metropolitan Development Authority, Institute of Local Government & Urban Studies (ILGUS), State Urban Development Agency (SUDA), Change Management Unit (CMU), Department of Municipal Affairs, National Institute of Urban Affairs, Bureau of Applied Economics and Statistics, National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organization (NATMO), Directorate of the Census Operation (West Bengal), Panchayat and Rural Development Department, South Eastern Railway Sealdah Division, National Library Kolkata, etc.

I like to show my gratitude to all the authors whose works I had to refer for the work. I acknowledge with thanks the persons whose names may not be able to mention here for their valuable suggestion and information.

Finally, this research would mean nothing without my family. I would like to thank my parents Mrs. Malati Saha and Mr. Harasankar Saha, for their support over the years that has brought me so far. Especially I am grateful to my mother; I would never have the passion to undertake this research, if her sacrifice, support and understanding were not with me.
