CONTENTS

Certificate
Acknowledgement
List of Figures and Graphs i
List of Cases ii
List of Tables iii-vii
List of Acronyms viii-x

CHAPTER – I

INTRODUCTION 1-38

Democracy and Accountability: A Brief Note

1.1 Democracy- Concept, Definitions & Models 2
1.2 Democracy and Good Governance 3
   1.2.1 Concept and elements of Good Governance 4
   1.2.2 Difference in Governance and Government 6
   1.2.3 Paradigm Shift from Governance to Good Governance 7
   1.2.4 Elements and Mechanism of Good Governance 8
1.3 Accountability: Definition, Concept & Theories 11
   1.3.1 Types & Theories of Accountability 13
   1.3.2 Social/Public Accountability & Right to Information 16
1.4 Review of Literature 19
1.5 Statement of the Problem 35
1.6 Objectives 36
1.7 Hypothesis 36
1.8 Study Area 37
1.9 Research Methodology 37

CHAPTER – II

RIGHT TO INFORMATION: GLOBAL SCENARIO 39-63

2.1 Introduction 39
2.2 Regional Standards 40
   2.2.1 The Organization of America States 40
   2.2.2 Council of Europe 41
   2.2.3 African Union 41
   2.2.4 The Commonwealth 42
   2.2.5 UNESCO & RIO Declaration 43
2.3 Right to Information in Prominent Countries 43
   2.3.1 United States Freedom of Information Act 45
2.3.2 UK’s Freedom of Information Act, 2000 45
2.3.3 Sweden Freedom of Information Act 46
2.3.4 Canada Access to Information Act 47

2.4 Right to Information in Neighboring Countries 48
2.4.1 Bangladesh RTI Act 2009 49
2.4.2 Pakistan Freedom of Information Ordinance, 2002 50
2.4.3 Nepal Right to Information Act 2007 50

2.5 Comparative Analysis of FOI/RTI in Neighboring Countries 51

CHAPTER – III

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE & MAIN PROVISIONS

3.1 Secrecy in India 64
3.1.1 Indian Evidence Act 65
3.1.2 Central Civil Service Conduct Rules (1964) 65

3.2 Democracy & Independence: In Reference of Secrecy and different Provisions to Promote Right to Information in India 66

3.3 Constitutional Provisions & Right to Information: Judicial Perspective 68

3.4 Right to Information: Popular Movement, Campaign & Drafts 72
3.4.1 LBSNAA (1995) 74
3.4.2 NCPRI (1996) 74
3.4.3 The Press Council Draft on Right to Information (1961) 74
3.4.4 Consumer Education Research Council (CERC) Draft 75
3.4.5 Chief Minister Conference (1997) 75
3.4.6 States Initiative on Right to Information 76
3.4.7 Shourie Committee’s Draft 76
3.4.8 Cabinet Minister Order 77
3.4.9 Freedom of Information Bill, 2000 77
3.4.10 Enactment of Right to Information Act, 2005 77

3.5 Main Provisions of Right to Information Act, 2005 78

CHAPTER- IV

AGGREGATE DATA ANALYSIS-I 87-133

4.1 Right to Information in India: An Analysis 87
4.1.1 Submission of Annual Report 88

4.2 Right to Information in Haryana and Evaluation of Performance of State Information Commission in Haryana 92

4.3 Right to Information in Bhiwani District (Study Area Profile) : An Analysis 99
CHAPTER-V

AGGREGATE DATA ANALYSIS-II

Introduction

5.1 Information Seekers under RTI Act

5.1.1 Awareness about Provisions of RTI Act

5.1.1.1 Applicability of RTI Act

5.1.1.2 Time Limit for Furnishing Information under RTI Act

5.1.1.3 Maintenance of Official Website under RTI Act

5.1.2 Suo Motu Disclosure of Information

5.1.2.1 Maintenance of Website

5.1.2.2 Quality of Information Provided Proactively

5.1.3 Furnishing Timely and Relevant Information

5.1.3.1 Furnishing Information

5.1.3.2 Relevance of Information Furnished and Satisfaction Therefrom

5.1.3.3 Time Taken in Providing Information

5.1.4 First Appellate Authority (FAA)

5.1.4.1 Appeals to First Appellate Authority

5.1.4.2 Time Taken by the First Appellate Authority

5.1.4.3 Satisfaction from the Decision of the First Appellate Authority

5.1.5 Approaching the SIC/ CIC

5.1.5.1 Appeals to the SIC/ CIC

5.1.5.2 Decision of the SIC/ CIC

5.1.6 Difficulties Faced and Attitude of Officials

5.1.6.1 Difficulties Faced

5.1.6.2 Attitude of Officials

5.2 State Public Information Officers (SPIOs)

5.2.1 General Analysis Regarding Seriousness towards RTI Act

5.2.1.1 Average Time Contribution towards RTI work

5.2.2 Suo Motu/Proactive Disclosure of Information

5.2.2.1 Maintenance of Official Website & its Updating

5.2.3 Timely Disposal of Information

5.2.3.1 Average Time for Disposal of Application

5.2.4 Improvement in Office /Record Management

5.2.4.1 Perception about Improvement in Record keeping & Service Delivery

5.2.5 Official Efforts for Transparency and Accountability

5.2.5.1 Compliance with Section-4 (1) (c) & Section-4(1) (d) of the RTI Act
5.2.6 Attitude of SPIOs

5.2.6.1 Attitude towards information demanded in format & RTI Act

5.3 Case Studies

- Case Study No.1 Dayanand Singhmaar gets his pension on appropriate time after RTI
- Case Study No.2 An endeavor for releasing of Scholarship of SC students
- Case Study No.3 Dalbir Singh get rid of problems related to electricity connection
- Case Study No.4: SPIO pays Rs 10000 for providing misleading and incomplete information
- Case Study No.5: Applicant came to know the status of a case of fraud.

CHAPTER VI
CONCLUSION & SUGGESTIONS

6.1 CONCLUSION

6.1.1 Disposal of Applications and Appeals
6.1.2 Level of Awareness
6.1.3 Suo Motu Disclosure
6.1.4 Relevant Information
6.1.5 Difficulties faced
6.1.6 Assistance from Colleagues
6.1.7 Working of SPIOs
6.1.8 Furnish of Annual Report
6.1.9 Record keeping and Service Delivery

6.2 SUGGESTIONS

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Annexure – 1
Annexure – 2
RTI Act, 2005