ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

So long is the process of research that it is not always easy to remember all who help in getting the work see the light of the day. I may forget some to mention here but that in no way suggest that I am less indebted to them for their help and cooperation during the pursuit of my research.

To start with, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Seemin Hassan, Chairperson, Department of English, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for her supervision. She has always been there for any kind of cooperation whenever I needed. I would put on record my gratefulness for her being a constant source of inspiration and support. I would like to thank her for her critical insight.

Words fail me to thank Prof. Mohammad Asim Siddiqui. His inputs were too valuable to find mention in a few words. He remained a source of encouragement and unending support. It has been an honor for me to get his regular advice and insight on my work. I feel highly indebted to him.

It would be a failure on my part not to acknowledge Dr. Aysha Munira. Apart from being a teacher, friend and guide, she remained a pillar of strength for me, making me realize that the pursuit of knowledge is an ongoing process and that it should never end. To acknowledge her and not to mention Dr. Sohail Ahmed would be a little unfair. He, as a friend, provided me with his suggestions whenever I needed any.

My sincere respect to my teachers, namely, Prof. Asif Shuja (Rtd), late Prof. Murthy Duraisamy, Prof. Sami Rafiq and Dr. Akbar Joseph who shaped my interest and motivated me to pursue research.

I would like to acknowledge the unconditional support of my very dear friend Dr. Taj Mohammad while reading the manuscripts. His promptness in giving his valuable feedback on my writing has helped me make my research work pertinent and lucid. My friend Meraj Ahmed has also been supportive during my research.

I would like to pay my sincere thanks to my family members, especially my parents and my brother. It would not have been possible without their prayers and never-ending support. Furthermore, I have always found my brother standing by my side in difficult times. I’m also thankful to Sana Rehman, my sister-in-law, for supporting me whenever I needed her. I would like to recognize the support of my uncle Dr. M. A. Rashid (mama), who has been a ceaseless source of inspiration throughout my life.

How can I ever forget to give credit to my wife Sumayya Rehman and our two little daughters, Manal and Madiha, for keeping me in a state of mind, necessary for serious research? Their presence, their patience helped me overcome all anxieties and fears which come with all the good things in life.

I would also like to thank those friends, seniors and relatives who have supported me through thick and thin. My friends and colleagues at the English Language Institute (ELI), King Abdulaziz University, Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, deserve my thanks for their moral support. I would specially like to mention Mr. Stephene Ambrose, Mrs. Shantha Nair, Dr. Ibrar Alam Ansari and Mr. Fayaz Alam Ahmed. They did come up with their ideas and thoughts at different points of time during my research.

I am thankful to the staff members of Maulana Azad library, Aligarh Muslim University. I would like to thank Mr. Suhail Ahmed and Mr. Khan Mohammad Parvez (Department of English, AM.U.) for their friendly attitude and consistent cooperation.

Lastly, I would like to mention Dr. Madihur Rehman Suhaib (Rtd.) for being a wonderful teacher, guide and supervisor, especially at a time when research was a new field to me, when marching ahead required direction. I express my immense gratitude to him.

Momtajul Islam