ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis titled “An Inter-State Study of Maternal and Child Health care in India” provides a well-organized treatment in health economics and divided into five parts which give us valuable information with reference to maternal and child health care in India.

I am grateful to my supervisor Prof. (Mrs.) Nighat Ahmad who has been providing me bountiful support and careful guidance in completion of this thesis. I shall always appreciate her for sustained, critical and analytical guidance and advice for the completion of my research work. I am grateful to her for being not only a supervisor but also a good adviser and for giving me valuable guidance and freedom to investigate my own ideas. I am indeed indebted to have a guide like her.

I would also like to thank to all the faculty members especially Prof. Shehroz A. Rizvi, Dr. Mohammad Azam Khan, Prof. Ashok Mittal, and the head, Department of Economics, Aligarh Muslim University for creating academic environment and allow me to work on this topic.

I extensively used the resources of Maulana Azad Library (central library), Aligarh Muslim University which helped me a lot to nourish my knowledge and concentrate my thoughts in completing of this thesis. I

I am also thankful to my seniors and my fellow research workers. I would specially like to mention the names of Dr. Shahid J. Ansari, Dr. Iffat Saher, Dr. Faraz Ahamd, Sajad H. Rather, Heena Saudagar and Mehvish Mehmood.

My heartfelt thanks are also due to my friends Rameez Ahmad, Md. Safdar Ali, Md. Meraj Alam Mohammad Salman, Mohammad Murtaza, Imran Ahmad, Nida Rehman, Abdulla and Saba Parveen who have been a reliable source of encouragement and help at every stage of my research work.

I feel proud to acknowledge the love and sacrifice of my beloved mother Mrs. Tasneem Irshad and esteemed father Dr. Irshad Ahmad, my brothers Shahnawaz Usmani, Sarfaraz Usmani, Amjad Usmani and my sisters Shabana Usmani, Yasmeen along with my other family members. I am especially thankful to my elder brother Mr. Shahnawaz Usmani for his unlimited support throughout the period of my study.

I am also obliged to the office and library staff of the Department of Economics as well as the library staff of Maulana Azad Library for their help and support from time to time.

(Gulnawaz Usmani)