These five years of continuous struggle has not only helped me to complete my Ph. D. work but also taught me how to overcome hardships and made me realize many important things in my life. Along this way, I came across many people who helped me in their own ways in bringing out this thesis successfully. In fact, I have realized the value of teamwork, which got me to reach this level.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and thanks to my Research Supervisor Prof. B. H. M. Mruthyunjayaswamy, Department of Chemistry, Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi for his constant support, keen interest and guidance during my Ph. D work. His emphasis on meticulousness and attention to detail has made this thesis a reality.

I owe my sincere gratitude to Prof. K. Siddappa, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies and Research in Chemistry, Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi, for providing the necessary laboratory facilities to carry out the research work and encouragement.

I wish to express my gratitude to my teachers Prof. A. Venkataramana, Prof. N. M. Goudgoan, Prof. M.B Halli, Prof. J. S Biradar and Dr. A. R Saundane for their help and useful discussions.
