ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The researcher has a great pleasure and privilege to extend her deep sense of gratitude to a number of helping hands for their indefatigable co-operation that enabled her to shape up this thesis. Indeed this page of acknowledgment shall never be able to touch the horizon of generosity of those who rendered help to the researcher.

The researcher owes a deep dept of gratitude towards her honourable guide Dr. Umesh Prasad Khadanga, Senior Lecturer, Dr. P.M.IASE, Sambalpur whose scholarly guidance, affectionate care and illuminating suggestion inspired the researcher in shaping the research problem. It would have been impossible to complete this work without his consistent inspiration and supervision. No words can express the sense of gratitude towards him.

The researcher is profoundly obliged to the members of the faculty and other persons of Dr. P.M.IASE, Sambalpur who helped the researcher in conducting the study.

The researcher extends her gratefulness to the Headmasters, Head Mistresses, and Assistant Teachers of the tribal secondary schools of KBK districts for their cooperation. Their effort and willingness to share their experiences enabled the completion of project.
The literary words cannot depict the depth of immense adoration for the researcher's devoted parents and family members whose ever blooming blessings and affection accompanied by ever lasting inspiration always promoted to get this work completed.

At the end the researcher likes to extend her heartfelt thanks to her husband Ramakant, sister Uma and computer operator Sri Amulya Dansana for their co-operation in giving the report a concrete shape.

(Usha Dash)
Researcher

12-01-2010