TABLES

1. Distribution of councillors of NAC (S.T) and NAC (C.T), Rourkela with respect to their sex.
2. Age grouping of the Councillors.
5. Educational standards of the Councillors.
7. Income groupings of the Councillors.
8. Displaying the response of the Councillors' awareness of urban problems.
9. Showing the response of the Councillors' awareness of State problems.
10. Showing the response of the Councillors as to the most important problem of India.
11. Councillors' attitude towards the capability of the Government to protect the poor.
12. Councillors' attitude towards the suitability of Democratic set up in India.
13. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to whether the present day Government is encouraging the corrupt people to prosper.
14. Displaying the attitude of the Councillors as to whether the present day leaders are forgetting their duty towards the society in pursuit of their self-interest.

15. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to whether the present Government is successful in checking vices like unemployment, illiteracy, corruption, black marketing etc.

16. Showing the response of the Councillors regarding the discussion of Governmental affairs in the family.

17. Showing the response of the Councillors as to the frequency of their discussion of politics with friends.

18. Showing the membership of the Councillors in various voluntary organizations.

19. Showing the position held by the Councillors in different organizations.

20. Showing the frequency of attending organization meeting by the Councillors.

21. Showing the frequency of speaking at meetings and conferences by the Councillors.

22. Showing the frequency of reading newspapers by the Councillors on account of political affairs.

23. Showing the type of news, which interests the Councillors, most.

24. Displaying the frequency of reading Magazines by the Councillors.

25. Showing the type of Magazine that interests the Councillors most.
26. Indicating the frequency of reading newspapers by the Councillors on the basis of their education.

27. Showing the type of news, which interests the Councillors, most on the basis of their education.

28. Showing the type of Magazine, which interests the Councillors, most on the basis of their education.

29. Showing the educational qualification of the Councillors on the basis of their age.

30. Indicating the frequency of reading newspapers by the Councillors on the basis of their age.

31. Indicating the response of the Councillors as to the best item in the newspaper on the basis of their age.

32. Indicating the frequency of reading Magazines by the Councillors on the basis of their age.

33. Indicating the response of the Councillors as to the best item in the Magazine on the basis of their age.

34. Indicating the frequency of reading newspapers by the Councillors on the basis of their income.

35. Indicating the response of the Councillors on the basis of their income as to their best item in the newspaper.

36. Showing the educational qualification of the Councillors on the basis of their income.

37. Showing the frequency of listening to T.V. or Radio for an account of public affairs.

38. Showing the response of the Councillors as to the programme they like best on T.V.

39. Showing the frequency of watching T.V for political information of the Councillors on the basis of their age.

40. Showing the frequency of the Councillors to the item, which they like best on T.V on the basis of their age.

41. Showing the frequency of watching T.V to get an account of public affairs on the basis of their education.

42. Showing the response of the Councillors as to the programme they like best on the basis of their education.

43. Showing the decision making structure in the family of the Councillors.

44. Showing the opinion of the Councillors as to whether children should take part in family decision.

45. Indicating the opinion of the Councillors as to the discussion of Governmental affairs in the family.

46. Displaying the response of the Councillors with respect to entertaining the complaint of their children about a decision.

47. Displaying the response of the Councillors with respect to impressing upon the children regarding Government and politics of the country.

48. Displaying the discussion by the Councillors on Economic and Political issues.

49. Showing the response of the Councillors as to the most important problem of Rourkela Steel City.

50. Indicating the response of the Councillors as to the most important problem of Orissa.

51. Indicating the response of the Councillors as to the most important problem in India.

52. Indicating the preference of the Councillors between T.V. news and Radio news.

53. Indicating the opinion of the Councillors as to whether mass media should be under Government control or Autonomous.

54. Displaying the membership of the Councillors in various types of voluntary organizations.

55. Displaying the response of the Councillors to a proposed unjust rule by the local authority.

56. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to the frequency of reading about politics.

57. Displaying the response of the Councillors regarding discussing politics with friends.

58. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to the frequency of reading of newspapers by them.

59. Displaying the response of the councillors as to the item they like best in the newspaper.
60. Displaying the frequency of reading Magazines by the Councillors.

61. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to their frequency of listening to Radio or T.V.

62. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to their favourite T.V programme.

63. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to whether T.V and Radio should be made autonomous or not.

64. Showing the response of the Councillors as to their favourite political party.

65. Displaying the response of the Councillors as to the effectiveness of various modes of conventional action.