

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity of expressing my warmest gratitude to my guide Dr. Dinabandhu Kar, Reader and Head of the Department of Sanskrit, J.K.B.K Govt. College, Cuttack, under whose supervision I had the privilege of carrying out research and preparing my thesis. He not only helped me in completing the chapters, but also gave me a method which would always stand me in good stead.

I offer my respectful gratitude to my father-in-law Pandit Bhubaneswar Kar, Retired Reader in Sanskrit, G.M (Autonomous) College, Sambalpur for many valuable suggestions. It was due to his manner of presentation that I felt attracted towards the study of this particular branch of Sanskrit Poetics.

I am also deeply indebted to Dr.(Smt) Kanak Lata Devi, Reader in Sanskrit, Ravenshaw (Autonomous) College, Cuttack, for her constant interest, encouragement and guidance in many knotty points with regard to Ksemendra studies.

I am also grateful to Prof. S.K. Mahapatro, Reader in English, Dhenkanal Mahila Mahavidyalaya (Govt.) for having gone through the thesis and for having suggested the linguistic and stylistic improvement.

I cannot restrain myself here from mentioning the names of my parents Sri B. Mishra and Smt. M. Mishra whose showering blessings strengthened my spirit.

I am thankful to the library staff of Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit, University of Poona, Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Poona, Jadavpur University, Kolkata, Kerala University, Kerala, Shri Jagannath Sanskrit Viswavidyalaya, Puri, State Museum, Bhubaneswar, Ravenshaw Autonomous College, Cuttack, J.K.B.K.
