Acknowledgments

This enriching voyage into the world of documentary, I owe to my thesis supervisor, Dr Vinod Pavarala, who inspired me at every step. Adequate words fail me, while acknowledging his invaluable critical insights and guidance, without which this dissertation would not have been possible. I remain indebted to Dr Aparna Rayaprol for opening up my mind for research, and patiently hearing me out in the initial months of my Ph.D. Thank you sir and m’am, for all the support, and making my PhD happen.

I am grateful to the Dean of SN School, Prof. E, Hari Babu, Prof B.P. Sanjay, Mr CVS Sharma and Mr P. Thirumal for all the help and encouragement I received from the school. I cherish the good wishes of the faculty members of the Dance, Theatre and Painting disciplines during my stay here.

The incisive theoretical insights of Anjali Monteiro, Deepa Dhanraj, K.P.Jayasankar, Shabnam Virmani and Stalin have contributed greatly to my work, and made it a very fulfilling experience. I remain indebted to them for this. Shabnam, special thanks for ‘When Women Unite’!

My sincere thanks to Anand Patwardhan, Omji John, Madhushree Dutta, K.P.Sasi, Sarat Chandran, Shriprakash, Chellam Bennurkar and Rahat Yousufi for taking time off from their busy schedules to talk to me. Many thanks to all my focus-group members at TISS, Video-SEWA, CEE, DDS, CT, GT, Shramik Vidya Peeth and Anveshi for their time and co-operation. My exploration of the alternative documentary in India was greatly aided by their inputs.
I am grateful to Mr Natarajan, Mrs Vidyarani, Mrs Rajani, Mr Singh, Mr Sudhakar, Mr Ramesh, Mrs Venkatalakshmi, Mr Madhav Rao, Mr Prakash, Mr Madhu, Mr Vijay, Mr Rajkumar, Mr Raghu, the Library staff and all the other non-teaching staff at SN School for their support throughout my stay. My thanks are also due to the co-operative staff at the library of the Hartford University, and the non-teaching staff at the LH2 office, the ad-block, and transport department who have helped me at various times.

My thanks to Vasu and Srinu for making life easier with the phone, and Krishna, Sangiah, Srinu, Hanumanth, Srihari, Ashok, Raju and Ramu for the 'strong' coffee!

For the emotional strength which kept me going, my gratitude to:

- My ammamma and tatha, for their blessings and love
- Sharadha aunty, Seshadri uncle, Radhammajji and Shakuntalammajji, for their support and affection
- Shrik and Charu, for being such a nice bhaiyya and bhabhi; Veena, Suresh and Hari, for being family, and my aunties, uncles and cousins for all the warmth.
- Lalitha Aunty and Lakshmi, for a friendship so blessed
- Deeps, for being there always, for fun, for philosophy, and so much more...
- Pooja, for the laughter, evenings at Gops, the 'ladybird', printer & woodtouching!
- Sharadha aunty, Rajanna uncle and Ravi, for their affection and hospitality
- Kanchan, for the mazaa we shared and her 'spirit'! (and the books, of course)
- Sridevi, Akku, Suma, Uma, Devanshu and Priya for the good old days, and anyone else I might have missed in the list...
- Suma, Raghu, Sriram, Vishwa and Sanju for the good times in CA
- My dependable laptop...

(bharath, to both of us —— for everything)
