Acknowledgement

Completion of research work requires efforts of many peoples. It would not have been possible to write doctoral thesis without help and support of the kind people around me. By the grace and mercy of the most beneficent and omnipotent, the present work is performed successfully.

It is my pleasure as the investigator to record here my feeling towards my respected guide Dr. B. R. Patil. Successful discussions and constructive criticism plays an important role during difficult stages of research work. His sympathy and generosity has been much beyond this formal obligation as a guide for which I am deeply indebted to him.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. P. L. More, Principal, Dnyanopasak College, Parbhani and Dr. M. T. Mulgir, Principal, Sharda Mahavidyalaya, Parbhani for giving me the opportunity to carry out my research.

My sincere thanks to all members of B. S. P. sanstha and Dr. K. L. Kamble, Principal, Shri Siddheshwar Mahavidyalaya, Majalgaon for valuable suggestions and inspiration for research work.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Dr. W. N. Jadhav, Head and Professor, Department of Chemistry, Dnyanopasak College, Parbhani and Dr. R. P. Pawar, Head and Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry, Deogiri College, Aurangabad for their fruitful advice and motivation during the course of my research work and providing necessary laboratory facilities.

Greatful acknowledgements to Dr. B. C. Khade, Dr. S. B. Tathe, Dr. S. R. Bhusare, Dr. N. M. Andurkar and other teaching and non-teaching staff of Department of Chemistry, Dnyanopasak College, Parbhani for helpful suggestions.

I would like to thanks, The director, Indian Institute of Chemical Technology, Hyderabad for providing spectral data. The Principal, N. S. B. College, Nanded and Micropharm Diagnostic Center, Gandhi Nagar, Gujrat for providing antimicrobial properties.

I would like to thank Dr. V. V. Dawkar, Scientist, National Chemical Laboratory, Pune for his guidance and inspiration during research work.

I would like to acknowledge thanks to my labmates Dr. Prashant Thorat, Dr. Santosh Goswami, Dr. Rupali Magar, Dr. Satish Dake, Dr. Swapnil Sarda, Mr. G. B. Gundlewad, S. H. Wagh, Mr. Suresh Jadhvar, Mr. H. M. Kasralekar, Mr. S. S. Pendalwar, Mr. A. V. Chakrawar, Mr. Prashant Kulkarni for appropriate help during my research work.

Some friends are never busy to give me a hand when I need so I express my affections to Dr. R. V. Gatkal, Mr. M. K. Kulkarni, Mr. K. K. Ladda, Dr. S. R. Mitkari, Mr. S. H. Patil, Mr. A. K. Hoke, Dr. K. K. Malu, Mr. S. R. Pawar and Mr. V. D. Shelke.

Words will be adequate to express my sense of gratitude towards my parents shri. Vitthalrao Borgaonkar and sow. Vimalbai Borgaonkar, sister Vijaya and jiju Anushalva, brother Avinash and Vinod and their wife Chaya and Seema. Special thanks to little masters Veeru, Vaibhav, Anvi, Anushka, Parth and Aryan for their innocence which help me to relieve the tension of work.

My wife Ashwini deserves a great deal of credit for her patience and mental support throughout the period of research work.

Lastly it is imperative to point out that though all may not be mentioned none are forgotten I couldn't have completed my Ph. D. without you all.

Research Student,

Vikas Vitthalrao Borgaonkar
