ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am immensely grateful to my guide Dr. S. Nanda, Professor and Head of Post-Graduate Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Sambalpur University for his kind guidance without which this work would not have been complete.

I record my grateful thanks to Professor A.P. Padi, of the Post-Graduate Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Sambalpur University, for the academic encouragement given by him.

I also make a candid record of my grateful thanks to both Dr. B. Patel and Dr. L.N. Mishra, Readers of the Post-Graduate Department of Political Science for their kind inspiration and help. Dr. Patel who had kindly spared some of his valuable time, and going through the draft of the thesis did a great favour to me in giving his advice. I am thankful to Dr. J.N. Patnaik, Principal, G.M. College, Sambalpur, for his kind cooperation. Had he not spared me for this work, it would not have been possible for me to complete this work.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not record my heart-felt thanks to my friends: Dr. P. K. Patnaik, Professor, Post-Graduate Department of Physics, Sambalpur University and Sri R.K. Mishra, Reader in English, G.M. Evening College and my other friends and relatives.

I record my thanks to Dr. B.P. Mahapatra, Librarian, Sambalpur University, Officials of the Government of Orissa, the Librarians of the Orissa Legislative Assembly, the Utkal University, the Berhampur University, the Suchana Bhawan and the National Library, Calcutta for their valuable assistance rendered to me at the time of collecting materials for my thesis.

My thanks are due to my friends, well-wishers and colleagues who, particularly during the critical time of shaping the work, have rendered me great help in boosting my spirit up for completion the work.
I thank Shri B.N. Misra, the Typist for the flawless typing of the thesis he has made.

Last but not least, I owe a lot to my wife Nivedita, who constantly motivated and inspired me to complete this work; my thanks are also due to her
