ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I profoundly thank my supervisors, Prof. I.N. Mukherji and Dr. Ganganath Jha, in the Center for South, Central, South East Asian and Southwest Pacific studies, School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University for their guidance and supervision and it is a matter of privilege to express my gratitude to them. Their encouragement is a constant source of inspiration to me in completing this work.

I thank all my teachers in Vietnam and India for their encouragement and helpful suggestions. I am much indebted to all my family members - my wife and my children for their love and affection. I specially thank Indian Council for Cultural relations (I.C.C.R) for the financial support at JAWAHARLAL NEHRU UNIVERSITY and I am particularly thankful to Vietnam Maritime Commercial Stock Bank (MSB) who allowed me to do research with financial support.

A word about the contribution of my colleagues, their love, constant encouragement and good humor immensely helped in sustaining my efforts. Words fail me in expressing my deep sense of gratitude to them. So many colleagues from Vietnam have extended their helping hand through mass media communication that I feel compelled to thank each one of them here, a big - THANK YOU - to all of them.
