ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me great pleasure to pause a moment in the last minute flurry of activity to facilitate the submission of this thesis to acknowledge all those who helped see it to its completion.

This work would not have been possible without the guidance of my supervisor, Dr. Yogesh Sharma. For the immense amount of time and inputs that he gave, I would like to take this opportunity to render to him my heartfelt thanks.

The Fundacao Oriente, Lisboa, provided a very generous scholarship for a year which enabled all my archival research in Portugal. Dr. Jorge Flores, then at the Comissao Nacional da Comemoracao dos Descobrimentos Portugueses, and Dr. Maria Ana Marques Guedes, were especially forthcoming during my stay in Lisbon. I would like to take a moment to acknowledge their help. I would also like to thank the staff at the library of the Sociedade de Geografia and at the Arquivo Historico Ultramarino, Lisboa, who were most helpful and efficient in locating books and manuscripts and in providing copies.

Fr. Charles Borges, S.J., Director of the Xavier Centre for Historical Research in Goa was very generous in allowing me to stay at the residence for over a month. Mrs. Lillian d’Souza, the librarian at the XCHR, was most cooperative and gave me a free run of her very well-stocked library.

I would also like to thank the librarian and staff at the Vidyajyoti Library, Delhi, and especially Fr. George Gispert-Sauch and Masrur, with whom I have had a long association.
My family and friends who have provided immense support, I cannot even begin to acknowledge. My parents, for believing in me long after I did in myself; Ashish and Riti, for their timely prodding and for the very generous use of their home over one whole summer; Ajay and Diya, for their endless patience, cooperation and good humour; Devi, for relinquishing her annual leave - I render to them all my heartfelt thanks.

Last, but by no means the least, I am especially grateful to Shashi and Divya for the typing of the whole script, to Aakriti for the final proof-reading and to Ajay for such high quality printing.
