ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the result of the support, cooperation and contribution of many individuals, institutions and libraries. At the completion of this work, I am indebted to many.

First and foremost, I express my deep and profound sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Pushpesh Pant, for his scholarly guidance, inexhaustible patience and constant encouragement. I am deeply indebted to him for helping in channelising my thoughts and in giving a definite form and shape to my ideas.

I am also indebted to Shri, V.K.H. Jambholkar, who supervised my research work till his retirement. His guidance was of great help to me in formulating my research design. Special thanks to Mr. Manish Dabade, faculty, diplomacy division, JNU.

My work is result of constant support from Dr. Vinayak Rao, United Nations University (UNU), Tokyo, Japan. I am deeply indebted to him. My heart felt gratitude to Dr H.S. Prabhakar, faculty, Japanese Studies, CEAS, JNU, for his constant guidance and support.

I am obliged to the staff of JNU Library, FICCI, CII, American Center Library, for their kind cooperation in using their library facilities. Many individuals and Officers, from Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), Ministry of Commerce and Industries, Government of India, deserve my deep felt gratitude for constant help and guidance.

Two institutions played a crucial role in locating Primary Sources. I am deeply indebted to Research and Information System (RIS), New Delhi, and European Commission, 65, Golf Links, New Delhi. They partially filled the gap of not making a Field Trip to the Head Quarters of EU and SAARC. FICCI facilitated accessing SAARCNET, and SAARC Chamber of Commerce and Industries (SCCI), documents.
My special thanks to the staff of United Nations University, Comparative Regional Integration studies, (UNU-CRIS) Bruges, Belgium, for mailing me certain free publications.

This thesis is dedicated to my parents. They stood like rock support to my academic career. Heartfelt thanks to my brother Gangadhar and sister Sarala. Two individuals deserve special mention for their love and care during my research work. Ms Varalaxmi Naik and Mr. Subhashis Bera took care of all the requirements during my work. Many more friends played a positive role in my work. The list is inexhaustible, and difficult to name all. Still I attempt to name few and if some miss out, please feel that your name is always printed in my heart. Omprakash Das, Hariprasad, Nistha, Seema, have always boosted my morale.

Finally, I thank Birendra, and his team of Sanjay Photostat, for getting this work typed.

I am alone responsible for the views expressed and whatever shortcomings in this work.
