ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Choice of topic is a difficult task. For my choice of topic, initial encouragement and general guidance in preparing this thesis, I am extremely indebted to my esteemed guide and supervisor, Dr. S.N. Rath, former Professor and Head of the Department of Political Science, Utkal University, Vani Vihar, Bhubaneswar.

For constant encouragement and timely advice and also for systematic presentation of facts, I am indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) Sharada Rath, Professor of Political Science, Utkal University, Vani Vihar, Bhubaneswar.

I am also indebted to the Librarian, Parija Library, Utkal University who has given me the access to go through the different books and journals relevant to my study. I can only put on record my sense of gratitude to him.

I am also equally grateful to Sri S.K. Das, Principal, U.G.S. Mahavidyalaya, Sakhigopal for according formal permission to get myself registered for Ph.D. work; I can put on record my special thanks to him.

I want to put on record my sense of gratitude to all the Pro-Panchayatiraj analysts and the academics of the state with whom I have discussed various issues relevant to my study. I am equally grateful to various officers associated with Panchayatiraj administration of the state who always smilingly did whatever they could by giving information and discussing various points with me in the midst of their busy office-work; and also giving me access to see official records, Government Circulars and guard files; I can only put on record my special debt to them.

I am also indebted to Sri P.C. Rath, Sri Lingaraj Mishra, Dr. K.K. Das, Sri B.C. Rath, and Dr. S. Pathi my friends and well-wishers for their constant help and encouragement.

I am particularly indebted to Sri Safalya K. Nandi, Asst. Librarian, Oriya Division, National Library, Calcutta who often went out of his way to procure books and journals for my use; I can only put on record my deep sense of gratitude to him.

I deem it my duty to extend my thanks to Md. Abuzar, Laboratory Assistant, S.C.S.(Autonomous) College, Puri for typing the final thesis.

My deep sense of gratitude goes to my deceased father whose blessings has been a constant inspiration to me to get rid of many obstacles in the way of completion of this thesis.

Finally, I am indebted to my wife, Smt. Jayashree Sarangi and my two sons, Joydeva and Avinash, whose constant encouragement and co-operation has brought this work to final shape.
