APPENDIX-D

INTERVIEW SCHEDULE

1. Name of the Project:

2. Name of the Surveyer:

3. Reference Number:

4. Name of the Respondent:
   (With Age, Sex, Education, Profession and address)

Title—Pattern of Alcoholism
Sub-Title—Culture and Alcoholism

a) What influence does drinking have on social organisation?

b) What values does it have to you? To what extent has it been adopted by you?

c) What is the history of the group in relation of drinking habit and social life?

d) To what extent are the history and tradition influence the drinking behaviour of the local people?

e) To what extent are traditional behaviour and thinking of the group changing? How does it affect the pattern of alcoholism in this area?

f) Does tradition and custom hinder the drinking habit of the members of the society?

g) How do they control the drinking habit of the members of the group?

h) How do the heritage affect the personal inclination towards drinking habit?

i) Are there any divergent attitudes arising among members of the society towards alcoholics?

j) How does the community deal with the non-conformists? To what extent is deviation tolerated?

k) How well adjusted are the various members of the community to drinking habit of individual members?
1) What sentiments has the society developed towards drinking behaviour?

m) What sanctions and taboos does the community impose on its members for alcoholism?

Sub Title : Alcoholism and caste system

i) How are members of the community effected by inequitable social stratification?

ii) Is there any relation between drinking habit and traditional caste system?

iii) What is the influence of caste system on drinking behaviour?

iv) Is that behaviour resulted from changing caste system?

v) Does the caste system impose any sanction on its members to indulge in drinking practices?

vi) To what extent is the caste system successful to check the drinking habit of its members?

vii) Is the drinking habit incompatible with the traditional caste system?

Sub Title : Alcoholic and class system

i) What are the economic problems of the community?

ii) Are there conflicts between different economic classes? Do these conflicts lead towards alcoholism?

iii) What provisions are made for the economically underprivileged? Are they more prone to liquor addiction?

iv) What problems arise because of class system? Do you think that alcoholism is the result of class system?

v) What is the extent of drunkenness and its relation with poverty rates?

vi) To what extent do social classes permeate the alcoholism?

Sub Title : Religion and Alcoholism

i) What social ideals does the religion foster towards drinking habit?

ii) What is the role of the religion to spread or to check the alcoholism?
iii) To what extent does religion act as a form of social control?

iv) Have there been any change in religion practices in recent past and are the drinking problem associated with these changes.

Sub Title: Politics and Alcoholism

i) Is there any role of politics in alcoholism?

ii) Has any political party encouraged alcoholism in this area?

iii) What unique behaviour patterns, codes do the political parties impose on members towards alcoholism?

iv) Has the new group of young leaders recognized alcoholism as a social problem in the area?

v) What is the quality of local leadership? Have they taken any step to curb the problem of alcoholism in this area?

vi) How do they envisage social problem?

Sub Title: Family Organisation and Alcoholism

a) Does drinking affect one's family life?

b) What is the degree of its stability or instability and its effects on other members?

c) Does the alcoholism constitute a major source of stress for family members?

d) Does the stress produce any harmful effects on family members?

e) What are the circumstances of alcoholism in the family?

f) Does the alcoholic husbands depends economically on their wives.

g) Does the alcoholic husband dissatisfy with their marriages in relation to the attitudes and behaviour of their wives?

h) Do the alcoholic parents behave inconsistently towards the children.

i) What new problems does alcoholism create in the family?

j) Do you think that break up of joint family system is a factor for alcoholism?
Sub Title : Education and Alcoholism

i) What effect does education have on the drinking habit of the individual?

ii) To what extent educational inequalities related with alcoholism?

iii) What are the attitudes of educated people in the area towards alcoholism?

iv) Do you think that lower education or illiteracy is related with alcoholism?

Sub Title : Occupation and Alcoholism

i) What are the major occupational pursuits in the area?

ii) Do the occupational attitude permit for alcoholism in certain occupational group?

iii) Is the alcoholism is the result of unadjustment of members to their occupations.

iv) Do you think that different in occupation tend to create different rate of alcoholism among the members?

v) Do you think that persons associated with transport industry are more prone to drinking habit than other occupation.

Sub Title : Social control and Alcoholism

i) Does the community attempt to control the alcoholic behaviour?

ii) To what extent are the folkways and more a means of control of alcoholism?

iii) What are the nature and role of public opinion towards alcoholism?

iv) What are the ways in which the government operate as a formal means of social control to check the various drinking problems?

v) What are the consequences of disregard or violation of social controls of the community towards alcoholism?

vi) How efficiently and effectively the law act as a means of social control to curb various drinking problems in this area?
Sub Title: Ceremonies, Rituals and Alcoholism

i) What are the main ceremonies and rituals practiced by the community? What effect do these have upon participants for development of drinking behaviour?

ii) To what extent are the rituals and ceremonies a source of alcoholism?

iii) Is the drinking a part of ceremony and ritual?

iv) In which specific occasion do the people like to drink?

v) Does drinking serve as an integrative and organising force in rituals and ceremonies?

Sub Title: Demographic factor and Alcoholism

i) What is the influence of the population composition on the drinking habit of the area?

ii) To what extent age is related with alcoholism in this area.

iii) Do you think that younger generation is more addicted with alcohol than the older generation.

iv) Is in-migration population mobility to this area related with alcoholism? How it affected the drinking habit of the people?

v) Are the males are more number of drinkers than the females in the area?

vi) What influences have the population change exerted on the people to accept drinking habit?

Sub Title: Employment and Alcoholism

i) Do the people have enough employment opportunities in the area?

ii) Does unemployment create the problem of alcoholism?

iii) Does unemployment affect the morale of the individual which leads to alcoholism?

iv) To what extent does unemployment related with the alcoholism?

Sub Title: Social changes and Alcoholism

i) What changes have occurred in the lives of people of the area during the last decade?

ii) In what way are rapid social changes responsible for the development and spread of the problem like alcoholism?
iii) To what extent have the new impersonal social relations within the community contributed to the arise of alcoholism.

iv) How do community members account for the persistence of the local social problem like alcoholism?

v) What is the extent of cultural conflicts? To what extent is cultural conflict a factor in alcoholism?

vi) Do you think that the changes occurred in method of social control gives rise to alcoholism?

vii) How has the alcoholism been spread up in the area? Is it due to changing agricultural practices? Is it due to advent of paved national highways and express highway and automobile transportation?

viii) To what extent is the 'revolt of youth!' against the tradition, a factor in alcoholism?

ix) Do you think that structural change in society affect value system of people which is ultimately responsible for alcoholism?

x) How does shift from agricultural life to business life and wide contact with alien people leads to alcoholism in this area.

xi) To what extent does the new habit of alcoholism reflect new social trends in the culture of the community?

xii) To what extent is this new habit an element in social development?

xiii) How much and what aspects of the old structure and of the old ideas were taken over by the new institution?

xiv) Who is responsible for the change towards alcoholism? Have changes and disorders growing out of it tended towards social disorganisation?

xv) Are the changes in this way desired? What traditions and usages stand on the way of the drinking habit in this area.

xvi) What social standard are maintained by the people of this area? To what extent is there an attempt to imitate the urban standard in regard to drinking habit?

xvii) To what extent the modern industrial society characteristics like pessimism, emotion, depression, isolation etc. are responsible for alcoholism in this area due to social change?

Sub Title: Economic factor and Alcoholism

i) What economic factors have contributed to the spread of alcoholism in this area?
ii) What is the source of financial support for alcoholism in this area?

iii) To what extent the cheap income of the people (easy money) helps them for the development of drinking behaviour.

iv) How does the high income through transport industry related with alcoholism?

v) How extensive is poverty in this area? To what extent poverty is related with alcoholism?

vi) Do you think that low income group people are less intoxicated than the higher income group people in this area?

vii) To what extent the economic insecurity leads towards alcoholism?

Sub Title: Neighbourhood and Alcoholism

i) What types of neighbourhoods found in this area?

ii) What role does the neighbourhood play in the development of alcoholism?

iii) What interpersonal and group relations are maintained by the alcoholic with neighbourhood?

iv) What is the attitude and effect of neighbourhood on alcoholic?

Sub Title: Alcoholism and Socio-economic impact

i) What are the social effects of spread of alcoholism in this area?

ii) What are the nature and extent of the health problem arise due to alcoholism?

iii) What trends are observed in individual health due to alcoholism?

iv) To which extent are the people aware and conscious about health problems due to alcoholism?

v) What preventive steps have been taken to control the health problem due to alcoholism?

vi) What personal problems of adjustment to anxiety, tension, guilt and the like arise due to alcoholism?

vii) How much successful the drinker is in gaining and holding the respect of others?

viii) What tension and imbalance occur as a result of alcoholism?
ix) To what extent alcoholism is related with social unrest?

x) Does the alcoholic make conflict and quarrels with others.

xi) Does recurrent feelings of failure, isolation, hopelessness and depression etc. of alcoholics leads to suicide.

xii) To what extent does the alcoholism leads to absenteeism? Does it affect the work efficiency also?

xiii) Which one of the following is related with absenteeism?
   a) occupational type (b) amount of job freedom (c) off job drinking experiences.

xiv) Is there any relation between alcoholism and work performances (making) mistakes at work, lower quality of work, industrial accidents etc.

xv) What is the relation between alcoholism and sexual tension of the individual? Does it lead to association with prostitution?

xvi) To which extent the road accidents in this area is related with alcoholism?

xvii) To which extent does the alcoholism is related with criminal activities?

xviii) Does the revengeful attitude of drinkers leads to crime such as rape, murder etc.?

xx) Do you think that drinking affect the interpersonal relationship and personal satisfaction?

xxi) Do you know any case of sale of property (movable and immovable) to meet the cost of alcohol in this area?

xxii) Does drinking affect one's family life? Does it lead to family disorganisation?

xxiii) Do you think alcoholism is associated with gambling in this area?

xxiv) Do anomie and alienation develops due to alcoholism in this area?