ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I would like to express my heartiest and deep gratitude to my research guide Prof. Kandarpa Das, Head, Department of Foreign Languages, Gauhati University, for his support, scholarly guidance, encouragement and help during the course of this study. I feel it a profound privilege to work under his guidance. I shall ever remain grateful to him.

I also gratefully acknowledge the advice of late Dr. Dipankar Banerjee, Professor, Department of History, Gauhati University who guided my work in the very initial stage, but could not continue it due to his sudden demise in between of my research work.

It is very difficult to express in words my gratitude to all my respected teachers, especially Dr. Ankuran Dutta, Head of the Department of Communication and Journalism, Gauhati University, and Mr. Chandan Kumar Goswami, Assistant Professor of the Department of Communication and Journalism, Gauhati University for their cooperation and helpful suggestions at different stages of this research work.

A research work cannot be carried out in isolation. I also gratefully acknowledge the help of different persons, specially worked with Kohinoor Theatre and Abahawn Theatre of Pathsala who gave me lots of information during the time of my field visit for the purpose of data collection. Without their cooperation, it would have been very difficult to complete the study.

I will be a failure on my duty if I fail to record my deep appreciation of my mother Mrs. Pratibha Devi, my elder brother Mr. Muktinath Sarma and my wife Mrs. Pushpanjalee Sivom who were always bearing my indulgence with a smiling face and gave continuous encouragement in preparing this thesis.

Last but not the least, I express my sincere thanks to the Dean, Faculty of Fine Arts and Gauhati University authority for allowing me to take up the research work.
