ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I express my deep gratitude to my revered teacher and supervisor of this thesis, Dr. Kshamanidhi Mishra, Reader and Head, Department of English, Nimapara College, Nimapara, Puri, Orissa, but for whose scholarly touch and patient supervision, this research work would have been incomplete and immatured. I am highly indebted to Mrs. Ratnanjali Mishra, my guide’s wife for her motherly affection and inspiration for preparing this thesis.

My acknowledgement is due to Prof. Isaac Sequeira, Acting Director, IACIS, Hyderabad, India, for providing me the key knowledge about the “Black Arts Movement of 1960s”. Also I am thankful to Dr. Rajendranath Mishra, Sr. Lecturer in English, B.B. College, Chandikhole for providing me some relevant materials and information to prepare this thesis.

My acknowledgement is due to the libraries of IACIS, Hyderabad, Parija Library of Utkal University, Pandit Biswanath Das Central Library of Cuttack, Library of Ranpur College, Ranpur, Nayagarh and American Corner, Satyanagar, Bhubaneswar for providing me necessary books and journals to prepare this thesis.

I am highly thankful to my beloved parents, my sister Mama, my wife Rosy and my in-laws for their encouragement and co-operation. I am thankful to Susanta Kumar Mahapatra and Suresh Kumar Nanda for doing the entire DTP and Binding work of this thesis.
