ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have the pleasure to express my deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to all of them, those who have helped and extended their kind and valuable cooperation either directly or indirectly for the completion of this piece of research work. The assistance received in collection of relevant data, maps and valuable reports from the Directorate of Census Operation, Bhubaneswar, the Office of the Survey of India, the Department of Tribal and Harijan Welfare of the Orissa shall ever be remembered without which this data-based research work would not have been possible.

The completion of this work has been greatly due to the commendable and continuous supervision of my revered teacher, Dr. D.K. Singh, Professor of the Post-graduate Department of Geography, Utkal University. His encouragement accelerated the progress and quality of my work and for this I shall remain ever indebted. Since the very beginning till the end of my work I received an everlasting warm cordiality from Dr. (Mrs) V.L. Singh and other members of her family as well, for which words will fail to acknowledge my love and indebtedness to them.
I feel equally indebted to Dr. B.N. Sinha, Professor and Head of the Post-Graduate Department of Geography, Utkal University and all the staff members of Post-Graduate Department of Geography for their encouragement, assistance and academic suggestions.

I acknowledge with thanks the valuable suggestions and information provided by a large number of persons whose names I may not be able to record here. However I must mention here at least the names of a few. A special debt is acknowledged to Dr. R.K. Nayak, I.A.S., Hon. Co-ordinator of NISWAS, Orissa, Bhubaneswar, Mr. R.C. Sen of the Survey of India, Dr. M.D. Nayak and Mr. M. Azad of Capital Hospital, Bhubaneswar, Mr. J.P. Rout, Research Officer, Mr. K.C.S. Bhagabati, Senior Geographer and Mr. Manmohan Sahoo, Librarian of the Census Organisation and Mr. Gopinath Satpathy, Research Officer of the Department of Tribal and Harijan Welfare, Government of Orissa for their everwilling help and cooperation.

I would fail in my duty if I do not make a special mention of my friends and well-wishers Mr. S.P. Pati and Dr. J.K. Routray, Lecturer of the Department of Geography, Utkal University, Mr. Niranjan Dash, Lecturer in Geography of the S.K.C.G. College, Paralakhemundi, Mr. B.K. Mishra, Lecturer in Geography of the S.C.S. College, Puri and Mr. Ajoy Kumar Pradhan, M.Phil student of the Department of Geography.
Geography, Utkal University who extended their help from the initial stage of the work till its completion in many possible ways. Sri G.M. Sahoo also of the Department of Geography deserves my heart-felt gratitude for the troubles that he has taken in the final drafting of the maps and diagrams. I would like to record here the timely help given by Sri P.C. Kar of the Department of Geology, Utkal University in completion of certain cartographic work.

It will be a duty to record here my gratitude to the various authors whose works I had to refer in this dissertation since it is not possible to record their names individually for appreciation.

I am grateful to my colleagues in the Department of Geography of the Ravenshaw College, Cuttack not only because of their inspiration and suggestions but also for their cooperation.

I convey my deep gratitude to my parents, and other members of my family and well-wishers whose inspiration has enabled me to overcome many difficulties both academic and domestic. Special mention must be made of my sister Dr. Seba Mohapatra and of my nephew Mani and his friends who helped a lot for completion of this piece of work. I will fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge the help rendered by Sri Prasanna Kumar Sahoo, Sri Ratikanta Mohanty and Sri Kamakshya Prasad Singh who kept me in good humour and solved some of my problems in data collection. I have a special place for the name of Dr. P.K. Acharyya, my brother-in-law in the list of people to be remembered for the successful completion of this work.

Finally, Sri Jugal Kishore Dash deserves thanks for typing my thesis carefully both at initial drafting and final stages.
