CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

ABBREVIATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Diplomacy and Crypto-Diplomacy 1
Religion and Ideology 3
Some Internal Roots of the Pakistani Diplomacy 5
The Rise of Militant Islam and Pakistan 12
Pakistan and Jihad 16

CHAPTER 1: Use of Religion as a Diplomatic Tool and the Role of Religion in the Genesis of Pakistan.

Some Examples of Diplomatic Use of Religion 22
The Genesis of Pakistan 31

CHAPTER 2: Pakistan as an Islamic State and a Part of Ummah: According an Active Role to 'Islamic' Concepts.

Islam and Political Authority 49
Ummah and Pan-Islamism. 53
Jihad and International Terrorism. 55
The Mosques, Madrasas and Islamic Fundamentalism. 58
The ISI, Organised Crime and Low Intensity Conflict. 61
The End Products: The Taliban Militia and Other Fundamentalist-Terrorist Groups 64
Islam and the State in Pakistan 69
Pakistan’s Political Economy and the Ummah 84
Pakistan, the Muslim World and the Kashmir Issue. 92
Pakistan and Some Major Pan-Islamic Issues. 100
CHAPTER 3: The Pakistan Diplomacy of Religion vis-à-vis India

- The Partition and Related Problems
- The Cold War Dynamics and the China Factor
- The Clash of Values
- Pakistan, the Indian Punjab and ‘Khalistan’
- Religion, Kashmir, Kargil and Coup in Pakistan.
- Pakistan, the Babri Mosque Issue and the Bombay Blasts.

CHAPTER 4: The Emergence of ‘Global Jihad’ and the Pakistani Diplomacy

- The Global Islamic Resurgence
- The Afghan Cauldron and the Pakistani Chestnuts
- The Taliban Militia
- The Pakistani Army and the ‘Zia Generation’
- Pakistan and Central Asia
- The Conflicts in Chechnya and Xinxiang
- ‘Global Jihad’ and the Weapons of Mass Destruction
- Some Acts of ‘Global Jihad’

CHAPTER 5: An Assessment

- Islam and Democracy in Pakistan
- The Shifting Sands of Diplomacy
- The Indo-Pakistani Equations
- On which Side will the Cookie Crumble?

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Primary Sources
- Secondary Sources