ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The author expresses his heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Digaraj Brahma, Asst. Director, Directorate of Teacher Education and S.C.E.R.T., Orissa, Bhubaneswar for guiding the present thesis, "A Study of Moral Education and its Implication in Primary Schools".

The author is also thankful to Bhagwan Sri Sathya Sai, Chancellor of Deemed University, Prasanti Nilayam, Andhra Pradesh for his inspiration and encouragement.

He is also grateful to Dr. J.N. Mohanty, Director of Academic Staff College, Utkal University, Vanivihar, Bhubaneswar and Dr. S.C. Dash, Director of State Resource Centre, Orissa, Bhubaneswar, for inspiration and guidance in various stages of this research work.

He is equally grateful to Sri Sashibhusan Mishra, District Inspector of Schools, Dhenkanal who extended all types of administrative facilities for completion of this thesis in time. The author acknowledges the help of the Headteachers and Assistant teachers of Primary Schools of Orissa for extending their help in connection with this research project.

He is also grateful to K. Rama Rao, Principal, Ramakrishna Institute of Moral and Spiritual Education, Mysore.
He is grateful to H. Mobark, Chief Adult Education Section, UNESCO, 7, Place de Fontenoy, PARIS, FRANCE for his complimentary research material on Moral Education.

He is equally grateful to Loraine Burrows, Spiritual Convenor, Sathya Sai Foundation of Thailand for his complimentary books on Education in Human Values.

He is grateful to Mr. Hiroshi Kida as well as Mr. Hiromitsu Takizawa, The Director General, National Institute of Education for Research, Tokyo, Japan.

He is also grateful to Ekok Djaka as well as Mrs. C.L. Villanueva, Officer-in-Charge of Library and Documentation Service, UNESCO, Bangkok, Thailand for his lot of selfless service in course of this research work.

He is grateful to Peter Sutton, Executive Editor International Review of Education, UNESCO INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATION Feldbrunnenstrasse 58 2000 Hamburg 13 F.R.G. for his inspiration and guidance during this research work.

He is equally grateful to his parents Sri Bansidhar Sarangi, Smt. Sarojini Sarangi and Rangadhar Sarangi who are all along a source of inspiration to him in undertaking the activities related to Moral Education since his childhood.

R Sarangi
8.2.92

February 08, 1992. (Radhashyam Sarangi)