ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am beholden of Dr. P.C. Tripathy, Professor of Commerce, Utkal University for his very kind supervision of my work, but for whose forbearance this study would have been impossible to come about.

I should also take the opportunity here for acknowledging debts of gratitude to Professor R.K. Jena and Professor B.N. Patnaik of Utkal University of the faculty of Commerce, who have from time to time rendered invaluable help in clearing my mind in foggy areas.

I have also benefited from discussions with such eminent academicians as Professor Omer Bin Sayeed, National Institute for Training in Industrial Engineering (NITIE), Bombay; Professor J.C. Sharma and Professor Salvi, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Bombay; Professor Arbinda Tripathy, Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Ahmedabad; Professor V. Laxmipati, Osmania University, Hyderabad; Professor B. Narayan, B.I.T. Misra, Ranchi; Professor B.P. Singh, University of Delhi, Delhi; Professor N.S. Gupta, University of Jammu, Jammu & Kashmir; Professor G.C. Agrawal, University of Allahabad, Allahabad; Professor Mohd. Saheed, Jamaia Millia Islamia, New Delhi; Professor D. Nagaiya, NISIET, Hyderabad; and Professor P.K. Sahu, Berhampur University, Berhampur. To them too I owe academic debts.
Institutions are no less important than individuals towards the academic and research activities. I wish to record my indebtedness to the libraries and staffs of the following libraries: the libraries at the University of Jammu, University of Delhi, University of Bombay, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, National Institute for Training in Industrial Engineering, National Institute of Small Industries Extension Training, Osmania University, University of Bombay and National Library at Calcutta. I have been also generously helped by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and Indian Council of Social Sciences Research (ICSSR) for my research.

I would fail in my duties here if I do not record the kindness of Principals and heads of the department of Commerce, Ravenshaw College. They have been very patient in sanctioning leave from time to time during the last six years. I am especially grateful to the Government of Orissa for granting me study leave for a period of two years.

The list will be long if I recount the names of innumerable friends and colleagues who have given me indirect help. But a few of them deserve special mention: Mr. Lagnajit Ray, Dr. Sumanyu Satpathy, Mr. Manoranjan Dash and Mrs. Smruti Dash. At a more personal level I can only mention the name of my wife Mrs. Minakhsi Dash for her tremendous support. But the two tender souls who do not understand the great value of their role, have really made the whole enterprise possible: my daughter Neha and son Amrit.

Lastly, I am thankful to M/s Tripathy Xerox for giving final touch to my thesis.
