CONTENT

Introduction : 1 - 6

Chapter I: Human Rights: Moral Speculation and Problem of Politics 7 - 36
• From Human Nature to Human Rights
• End of History and Communitarian Correction of Liberalism
• From What is to What Can Be

Chapter II: Human Rights, Human Needs and Participation in the Context of Development 37 - 68
• Human Rights and Well being
• Right to Development
• Participation as a Human Rights

Chapter III: Rights, Good and Justice in the Context of Development 69 - 89
• Human Rights and Teleological Explanations
• Human Flourishing

Chapter IV: Autonomy, Universality and Normativity 90 - 116
• Human Rights and Normative Questions
• Moral Realm and Social Relations
• Autonomy, Universality and Collective Good

Chapter V: Emerging World Order 117 - 169
• Order of Rights
• Responsibility to Otherness
• Agency Freedom, Humane Governance and World Order

Concluding Observations 170 - 181

Appendix I 182 - 186
Appendix II 187 - 190
Bibliography 191 - 200