The research work started with an express objective to define the intricacies of the emerging environmental problems; for redefining the path to find solutions. Orissa being so rich in its natural bounty is reeling under pollution hazards which has questioned the very survival of man and other living beings.

Under the background of above circumstances; I humbly undertake the earnest opportunity to promptly record my indebtedness for the persons; who deeply influenced my research work and enabled me to architect the thesis in its present shape.

At the outset; I take the pleasure to offer my indebtedness to my philosopher and guide Prof Bijoyini Mohanty for her inspirational guidance and supervision in fulfilling this research work. Prof Mohanty's eloquent understanding on this subject helped me to weave the various aspects of my research into a coherent whole.

I express my profound gratitude to Dr. Achyuta Samanta, Chancellor, KIIT for enabling me a platform to realize my dream to work in the field of environment.
I acknowledge my humble gratitude to Prof Biswajeet Das and Prof Aditya Goutam for their stimulating advice and timely suggestions.

I am earnestly grateful to the cosmic powers of the universe, for infusing in me the patience to introspect the riddles and overcome with special concepts and ideas.

I gratefully acknowledge the academic input and contributions of Utkal University Library, World Bank Library, Orissa Pollution Control Board Library, Central Pollution Control Board Library New Delhi, National Library Calcutta, IPE Library, , Orissa State Library, Government of Orissa Secretariat Library, NIHM Library, OUAT Library, IIT & IBAT Library, HSMI library, Habitat library[NewDelhi], OUAT library, BDA library, Institute of Engineers Library, Ministry Of Environment New Delhi and Pollution control wing of RSP.

I extend my thankfulness to my husband Dr Debasish Patnaik for his invaluable support in helping me prepare my thesis and finish the work in time.

While concluding, I wish to thank everybody, who in my path of understanding the subject of study educated me directly or indirectly at any point of time in any manner what so ever. With best wishes and warm regards.
