ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. B.B. Acharya, Former Head of the Post-Graduate Department of Commerce, Ravenshaw College, Cuttack, Orissa under whose prudent and sincere guidance I have been able to complete this humble work. However, if the thesis contains any blemish, it is entirely due to me. I find no words to express my gratitude to him.

It is difficult to carry out a work of this magnitude without getting help from various agencies. It is worthwhile to mention their names who have extended their hearty cooperation. I must express my obligations to the faculty members of the P.G. Department of Commerce, Utkal University, Vani Vihar, Bhubaneswar and the members of staff of Kendrapara College, Kendrapara for their valuable suggestions to enrich the quality of this thesis.

I express my gratitude to the staff and members of National Institute of Rural Development, Hyderabad, Department of Panchayat Raj and State Institute of Rural Development, Government of Orissa, District Rural Development Agency, Dhenkanal for their cooperation and help.
I express my deep sense of gratitude to the learned authors whom I have referred to in my thesis.

I also express my indebtedness to my family members, friends, relations and wellwishers who have encouraged me to takeup and complete the work.

Lastly, my special thanks are due to Mr. Laxmidhar Das of Laxmi Commercial Institute, Cuttack who took pains in neatly typing this thesis.
