ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to my revered teacher and supervisor, Atul Chandra Pradhan, Professor and Head, Department of History, Utkal University, for his expert guidance and constant encouragement.

I am also grateful to Prof. Shan Muhammed, Ex.-Chairman, Department of Political Science, AMU; Prof. T. A. Nizami, Director, Centre for Nehru Studies, AMU; and Prof. M. Subrahmaniyam, (Retd.), Department of Political Science, AMU, Aligarh for rendering me timely guidance and advice.

I also render my heartiest gratefulness to Prof. Mushir-ul-Hassan, Vice-Chancellor, Jamia Millia Islamia and Dr. Rizwan Qaiser, Reader, Department of History, Jamia Millia Islamia, for their valuable guidance. I also received timely guidance from Prof./Susmit. P. Pani, Director, Directorate of Correspondence and Continuing Education, Utkal University, Bhubaneswar.

I am thankful to the staff of Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, National Archives of India, JNU library, Zakir Husain Library, JMI, Maulana Azad library, AMU, for their cooperation.

My endeavours had received affectionate encouragement from my parents. It was my father Dr. Inayat Khan and my mother Mumtaz Khan whose motivation carried me throughout the period. My father-in-law Md. Kamal Uddin and my mother-in-law Bibi Anjuman Ara had always been willing to help me inspite of their social commitments. My words fail to express my deep sense of indebtedness to my husband Dr. M. Alam who left no stone unturned with compassion, patience and continued cooperation because of which I was able to finish my work.

My thanks are due to all those numerous friends, and acquaintances who have been quite accommodating and generous in helping me while this work was in progress.
