ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Prasanna Kumar Nayak for providing me an opportunity to undertake this research work. I am greatly indebted to him for his guidance, suggestions and in-depth analysis, which have enabled me to complete this work.

I am extremely thankful to all the teachers and staff of Anthropology Department, Utkal University for their constant support and encouragement to carry out my Ph.D. work. My thanks are due to Sri U. S. Panda and Sri G. N. Mohapatra for their help in the data analysis and computer work. The help rendered by Dr. S. S. Kshora in editorial correction is invaluable. I also wish to thank all my friends and well-wishers who have always provided me with a congenial working atmosphere.

I owe a lot to all my family members who have been my source of inspiration since the beginning of my carrier and throughout the period of my research work.

Finally, I gratefully acknowledge the help and support rendered by the Saora people of my study area without which this work would not have been complete.
