CONTENTS

Acknowledgment i-ii
Abbreviations iii
Map of Konkan iv
Map of Bombay and the adjoining territories v

INTRODUCTION 1-14

I. POLITICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE DEVELOPMENT: ROLE OF GOVERNORS (PHASE OF CONSOLIDATION) (1661-1677) 15-59

✓ When did the English desired Bombay.
✓ When and How Bombay was ceded: the initial problems.
✓ Portuguese Governor ‘Castro and Policy of Procrastination’.
✓ Reaction in London on the delay of the Island’s possession.
✓ Death of Shipman and the Treaty with Humphrey Cooke.
✓ Bombay under the Crown: Mistake made by Cooke at the Time of Cession.
✓ Cooke and Bombay’s Development.
✓ Lucas Investigation into Cooke’s Action.
✓ Measures taken by Gervase Lucas.
✓ Differences: Surat and Bombay Government.
✓ Transfer of Bombay to Company.
✓ Bombay under the Company rule.
✓ Aungier and Bombay.
✓ Land Administration and Aungier’s Convention.

II. POLITICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE DEVELOPMENT: ROLE OF GOVERNORS (PHASE OF UPHEAVAL AND STABILITY (1678-1755) 60-95

✓ Bombay after Aungier and Josiah Child’s Policy.
✓ John Child and Bombay.
✓ Keigwin and Bombay.
✓ Bombay after Keigwin Mutiny.
✓ Clash of Interest: Old and New English Company, Gayer Vs Nicholas Wait.
Bombay after the Union of Companies.
Bombay under Charles Boone.
Bombay after Charles Boone.
Bombay in 1730’s.
Bombay in 1740’s.
Bombay in 1750’s

III. THE ENGLISH COMPANY AND THE POLITICS OF WEST COAST

- Mughal and Sidi’s
- Bombay and Mughal - Sidi war (1689)
- Dutch, French, Danish
- Maratha’s and Angre
- Treaty of 1674

IV. BOMBAY AND ITS TRADE: PROSPECTS PROBLEMS AND STRATEGIES (1661-1677)

From Crown to Company: The years of struggle
- Bombay and Humphrey Cooke: The Initial efforts and problems
- Humphrey Cooke and Henry Gary: Measures taken to bring trade to the island

The years of consolidation: Company in search of trade
- George Oxinden: Trading problems and prospects
- Aungier: The years of initial foundation of Company’s trade

V. COMMERCIAL GROWTH: PROSPECTS AND STRATEGIES (1680-1755)

- Rolt to John Child: Years of trading problems (1678-81)
- Years of Stagnancy in Trade
- Trade during and after Keigwin mutiny
- Bombay’s Rise as Headquarters: Trading Problems and Prospects
- Clash of Old and New Companies: Bombay’s trade
- Trade after the Union of Two Companies: Problems and Prospects
- Bombay Mint: Needs and Problems
VI. DISEASES, MORTALITY AND HOSPITAL

- Mortality on the island: Various causes.
- Health Conditions and Diseases.
- Hospital.
- The Other Problems: War, Storms, Epidemics and Fish Manure.
- Bombay and the Problems of Breaches.
- The Early Europeans and their Life Styles.

VII. SETTLEMENT PROBLEM: GENERATING PROVISIONS AND SUPPLIES

- Provisions: Problems of procurement and distribution of supplies (1670-80)
- Provisions: Problems of procurement and distribution of supplies (1680-1700)
- Provisions: Problems of procurement and distribution of supplies (1700-1760)

VIII. BOMBAY AND ITS JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

- Bombay and its judicial administration (1668-85)
- Judges and their working (1672-85)
- Working of Court in Bombay till 1685
- Civil and criminal proceedings (1668-85)
- Office of Coroner and Panchayats
- The Court of Admiralty and Court of Judicature
- Judicial administration in first quarter of eighteenth century
- Boone and Rama Kamati Affair
- Location of Court (1668-1727)
- Mayor Court

IX. FORT AND TOWN

- Town and Fortification under Crown: Efforts of Cooke
- Fortification under Company: Oxinden and Aungier.
- Fortification after Aungier.
- Town and its buildings (1670-1710)
- Fortification and Town Planning in Eighteenth Century
- Measures Taken to Meet Expenditure on Fortification.
X. THE GARRISON

- The Garrison
- Garrison under Crown.
- Garrison under the Company: Oxinden and Aungier.
- Mutiny of 1674.
- Aungier's Death and Reduction in Garrison.
- Keigwin Rebellion.
- Bombay Garrison in 18th Century.
- Garrison in Mid Eighteenth Century.
- Bombay and French.
- Garrison after Anglo-French War.
- Mortality in Garrison.

XI. PIRACY, BOMBAY MARINE AND ANGRE'S

Piracy

- Some Aspects of Piracy
- Mughal's, English East India Company and Piracy
- Piracy in Western Indian Ocean
- Country Pirates and Arab Pirates
- Malabar Pirates
- Sangarians
- Measures taken by the English Company to Combat Pirates
- The Cruelties of the Pirates
- Expenditures Incurred due to Piracy

Bombay Marine and Its Development:

- Bombay Marine in Seventeenth Century
- Bombay Marine in Eighteenth Century

Angre's and Marine:

- Charles Bonne and Kanhoji Angre
- William Phillips and Kanhoji Angre
- Angre's after Kanhoji Angre
- Maratha –English Alliance and End of Angre's