ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis has accumulated great many debts to numerous people at different points in time. It is not possible to acknowledge every one by name, but I must express my deep sense of gratitude to the following who have seen through the completion of the thesis without holding them responsible in any manner for the outcome of the thesis.

For having introduced me to the theme, for having enthusiastically and painstakingly gone through the study and having given it the shape it has, I am indebted to my research supervisor, professor, Dr. T. Sundararaj.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. S. P. Thyagarajan, Head, Department of Microbiology and Dean of University Industry Interaction Program, and Dr. S. Anandhan. Dr. P. Rajendran, Dr. Thangam Menon, Dr. V. Jayapal and Dr. Usha Ananda Rao, teaching staffs, for their co-operation and Help.

Former Directors Dr. S. P. Thyagarajan, Dr. Radha Shanmugam, Dr. M. S. Krishnamoorthy and present Director Dr. A. Namashivayam are hereby thanked for extending facilities to work in the Department.

I was gratified to whom responded to my request for help and volunteered to help in the areas germane to their particular area of interest. They are:
Dr. Savithri Sharma, L. V. Prasad Eye Research Institute, Hyderabad.
Dr. M. Srinivasan and Ms. Celine George, Aravind Eye Hospital and Post Graduate Institute of Ophthalmology, Madurai.
Dr. K. Anandakannan (Director, Vice-chancellor), Dr. Gnanaselvan,

Dr. Babakrishnan, Mr. J. Manoharan, Mr. M. Sukumar, Department of Pathology, Dr. ALM PG IBMS, Chennai.
Dr. Vajeravel Jeyakumar, Tamil Nadu Agriculture and Veterinary University, Chennai.

This work was supported in part by the grants from the Lady Tata Memorial Trust (Mumbai) and Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (Delhi), to whom I am greatly indebted.

A special thanks goes to Mrs. Ashwathy Sundararaj for her encouragement during the study period and having gone through the draft thesis.

I thank Dr. R. Samyuktha, Mr. Palani and members of the Library staff for their generous help.

I wish to acknowledge Mrs. Kownhar, Mrs. Geetha, Mrs. Ramani and Mr. John for their service and help all through my stay at Dr. ALM PG IBMS.

My fellow research colleagues Dr. N. Mallikarjun, Mr. Alex Anand, Mr. Rave Sanker, Mr. Niren Andrew, Mr. Selwyn, Mr. Mahendara Raja, Mr. P. Saravanan, Mr. P. Balakrishnan and Mr. S. Dharmalingam have all been a constant source of encouragement to me during the conduct of the thesis.

I also thank the management of Loyola College and my colleagues of the Department of Biotechnology for their co-operation and help.

Finally, I owe my parents, brother and sister a great deal for having put up with me all through the period while the thesis was in preparation. I have no words to thank them.
