ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to extend my immense pleasure and profound acknowledgement to all those special persons who in one way or other contributed and extended their valuable assistance to accomplish this study in time, and to only some of whom it is possible to give special mention here.

Foremost, I express my heartfelt gratitude and indebtedness to my research guide Dr. P.S. Udayan, Assistant Professor, P.G. Department of Botany and Research Centre, Sree Krishna College, Guruvayur, Kerala, for his full support, expert guidance, understanding and consistent encouragement throughout the course of my work. His academic enthusiasm and energy was always a source of inspiration for all of his students including me. Without his incredible patience and timely wisdom and counsel, my thesis work would not have been possible.

I sincerely wish to thank Padmabhooshan Dr. P.K. Warrier, Managing Trustee and General Manager, Arya Vaidya Sala, Kottakkal, Kerala, India for providing the necessary facilities and infrastructure to carry out my work.

It is my pleasure to express my deep sense of respect and gratitude to Dr. Indira Balachandran, Project Director, Centre for Medicinal Plants Research, Arya Vaidya Sala, Kottakkal, Kerala, India for providing necessary instructions and facilities throughout the work.

Words are not enough to place on record my respect, love and indebtedness to Dr. S.V. Predeep, SVR NSS College, Vazhoor, Kottayam who introduced me the wonderful world of legume systematic studies. My association with his research project on the legume flora of Kerala state was a turning point in my carrier and life. I also wish to thank his family for their exceptional hospitality and co-operation throughout my work, since we met.

I have special mention of thanks to Kerala State Council for Science, Technology and Environment, Sastrabhavan, Pattom, Thiruvananthapuram and its authorities for the project ‘Studies on the Legume Flora of Kerala State’, without the facilities and financial support from this project, my work would not have been possible.

My sincere thanks are also due to the management and faculties of SVR NSS College, Vazhoor, Kottayam for all the support and facilities rendered during my course time.

I am extremely grateful to Sri. D. Jayaprasad, the Principal Sree Krishna College, Guruvayur for providing me all the facilities to carry out my research work.

I record my heartfelt thanks to Dr. G. Jayakrishnan, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Botany and Research Centre, Sree Krishna College, Guruvayur and all other teaching and non teaching staff under the Department, for their valuable advices and help.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. A.J. Robi, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany, Bishop Abraham Memorial College, Thiruthicaud, Pathanamthitta, and Dr. Anilkumar K.A., Field Officer, Spices Board, Sikkim, for all their help and support rendered to me at different periods of time. The support given by Dr. Pius O.L., State Medicinal Plant Board, Thrissur and Smt. Seena Mohan, Extension Officer, Coffee Board, Adimali are also gratefully acknowledged.

Dr. N. Sasidharan, Kerala Forest Research Institute, Peechi was always a source of inspiration and I express my deep gratitude to him for the keen interest he has shown in this work and offering all his support and providing me some legume images.

I thank Dr. Hannah Banks, a renowned legume palynologist at Royal Botanic Garden, Kew for providing some relevant literature and for clearing doubts whenever raised.

Profound thanks are due to the most eminent palynologist of our times, Dr. P.K.K. Nair, Environmental Resources Research Centre, Thiruvananthapuram, for his wholehearted support and facilities provided during my literature survey at ERRC. The help rendered by Dr. Shaji P.K. and Ms. Divya K.G. are also need special mention.

I sincerely thank Dr. M. Sanjappa, Former Director, Botanical Survey of India (BSI), and the Joint Directors of different regional circles of the BSI who gave me permission for visiting herbaria. I extend my gratitude to the curators/in-charges of herbaria at KFRI, Peechi, JNTBGRI, Thiruvananthapuram, University of Calicut, Thenhipalam, University College, Thiruvananthapuram, SN College, Kollam, and SB College, Changanassery, for their help during my herbarium consultation.

I thank the Director, Sree Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Sciences and Technology, Thiruvananthapuram for providing SEM facilities. The help given by Mr. Nishad K.V. is specially acknowledged.

I am grateful to the Chief Conservator of Forests and all the staff of Kerala State Forest Department, for the permission and facilities provided during my field trips for plant collection.

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. K.D. Prathapan, College of Agriculture, Vellayani, Thiruvananthapuram, for all his inspiration, support and friendly advice given during my study.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Prabhukumar K. M., Scientist, CMPR, Kottakkal, Kerala, India, for his valuable and immense help during the course of this work.

My special thanks are due to Mr. Sooraj Kumar C.D, Ms. Aswathi S. and Ms. Soumya V.S., former PG students at SVR NSS College, Vazhoor for their commendable help in pollen slides preparation in the laboratory.

I owe special thanks to Mr. Reji Yohannan, SN College, Kollam for his immense support especially in the form of legume images and Mr. Shameem K.M., Calicut University, Malappuram for his whole hearted support in literature collection.
In this endeavour I am thankful to Dr. J. Venkata Sudhakar, Botanical Survey of India, Coimbatore, Dr. Giby Kuriakose, Sacret Heart College, Thevara, Dr. Maya C. Nair and Mr. Sojan Jose, Govt. Victoria College, Palakkad, Smt. Smitha Nair, SN College, Kollam, Mr. Sanoop Surendran, KFRI, Peechi, Mr. Binoy Paul and Mr. Harikrishnan S., Spices Board, for their support and help given on various occasions.

Nevertheless, my deepest gratitude is to my wife Minsu, for her unconditional love, the patience and the understanding she has shown, for bearing all the inconveniences during my study, and for all the emotional support and caring she has given during the entire period of my work. I am always indebted to my beloved parents, my loving sister and her family and my wife’s family for all their support, encouragement and blessings to accomplish this study.

Finally, I thank God Almighty for bountiful blessings showered on me, and leading me through the right track, without which the work would not have been materialized.
