Acknowledgments

I am indebted to many people who have contributed ideas and thoughts during my research over the last three years and for having been able to guide me. Without their foresight and willingness to help, this project would not have been possible.

I will endeavor to thank everyone involved: apologies for any glaring omissions. I would like to express my gratitude to all of them. In particular I wish to thank:

Dr. A. V. S. Prabhakar Rao, My Research Guide, Retd. Professor, I.I.T Kanpur and presently Guest Faculty, Center for Environment, JNTU, for his constant support, guidance and encouragement. He has been a great source of practical information and knowledge.

Dr. Y. Anjaneyulu, My Research Co-Guide, Professor, and Head, Center for Environment, JNTU, for his open door, his ideas, his constructive criticism, and many discussions. The best advisor and teacher I could have wished for. On the personal side, he did not hesitate to invite his students to become an extended part of his family.

Dr. M. Anji Reddy, Associate Professor, Center for Environment, JNTU for answering my numerous questions, his valuable discussions during project execution, patient co-ordination and also for acting as my observational co-advisor, without ever really having been asked.

Dr. P. Venkateswarlu, Assistant Professor, Dr. P. Ramakrishna Reddy for their sheer encouragement, and innovative suggestions. I would also like to acknowledge other faculty members Dr. K. Mukkanti, Associate Professor, Dr. V. Peesapati, Dr. Ch. Sashi Kala, and Dr. Hima Bindu Assistant Professors.
