ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to put on record my sincere thanks to Dr. Harjit Singh for his help, constructive criticism, valuable suggestions and guidance at every stage of research. I am also grateful to Prof. Moonis Raza, Vice-Chancellor, Delhi University for his inspiration and basic theoretical framework for initiating the research on Uttar Pradesh Himalayas.

I am also indebted to the faculty members of Centre for the Study of Regional Development, Jawaharlal Nehru University who helped me in understanding and analysing the problem critically. Prof. A. Ahmad and Prof. Kusum Chopra deserve it for their suggestions and encouragement and Prof. A. Kundu, Dr. Aslam Mahmood and Dr. R.K. Sharma for their guidance on statistical methods.

I am also grateful to my colleagues and friends from the Department of Geography North-Eastern Hill University for giving me their valuable time and intelligent suggestions. Dr. Gopal deserves special thanks for allowing me to avail the leave and Dr. B.S. Mipun for assisting in the cartography.

I am also thankful to my students - Anup, Sunil and Sahi for their help and cooperation. Murli Dhar and R. K. Sadhu deserve special thanks for their help in data processing and typing the thesis.

I am also obliged to my companion Shakuntala and son Siddhartha for their affection and emotional support.

Lastly, I sincerely take the entire responsibility on myself for all the errors and mistakes in the thesis.
