ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My greatest thanks are due to my guide Prof. Prabhat Patnaik who took pains to correct so many drafts of the thesis. Without his constant guidance, this thesis would have never seen the light of the day. I am also grateful to Prof. Sunanda Sen and Prof. Amal Sanyal, who had guided me in the initial years of my Ph.D. I am highly obliged to many people in BHEL and BICP for providing me confidential documents (their names, unfortunately, cannot be mentioned here for obvious reasons). I am also grateful to Biswajit Dhar and Chalpati Rao of Corporate Studies Group, IIPA, for providing me certain documents. My thanks are also due to my friends Susanjit, Tridib and Mritunjay, with whom I had useful discussion. My friend Sunil Batra and Satish Mohan helped me a lot in computer work. I am grateful to them.
