ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work was undertaken and completed under the scholarly supervision of Dr. B.C. Pradhan, M.A., Ph.D., Retired Reader in History. It is for his loving advice, constant encouragement, able guidance, untiring help and zealous supervision that I could complete this work. Words are insufficient to express my sincerest gratitude and deep indebtedness to him.

I am fortunate enough to have encouragement and wholesome advice from Dr. S.C. Panda, Vice Chancellor, Utkal University of Culture, Bhubaneswar and Prof. M.K. Purohit, Former Principal, Government College, Angul. I am deeply grateful to them.

I am also thankful to the authorities and staff of National Museum, Calcutta; Orissa State Museum, Bhubaneswar; Parija Library of Utkal University, Bhubaneswar; Kanika Library of Revenshow College, Cuttack; Central Library of Sambalpur University; Library of Athmallik College, Athmallik for their necessary assistance and co-operation.

I am very thankful to Sri Bhusan Kumar Patra who has taken great pain in going through the pages of the work and has offered necessary suggestions regarding the language of the thesis.

I am also indebted to the authorities of Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi who has helped me by providing necessary financial assistance to work in the said libraries and for field study.

I am sincerely thank to Sri Burle Sharma, Jyoti Vihar who has taken personal care in typing out the thesis.

Last but not the least, I sincerely acknowledge my indebtedness and gratitude for all those great savants and pioneers in the field of research whose work I have extremely utilized in the preparation of the thesis.

I am extremely thankful to my parents Sri Krishna Chandra Padhi and Smt. Binodini Padhi and my younger brother Subhransu for their encouragement. I also express my thanks to my wife Rashmi who shouldered all the family burdens and stood by me providing moral support at a time when I needed it most.

Athmallik Himansu

Himansu Sekhar Padhi