ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With a deep sense of gratitude I thank my supervisor Prof. Kapil Kapoor for his valuable guidance and great inspiration. Inspite of his hectic schedule of engagements as Rector, he did not fail to go through my thesis. My indebtedness to my other supervisor Prof. R.S. Gupta is beyond measure. He guided me very effectively through out the writing of the thesis giving necessary suggestions and constant inspiration.

I am also grateful to Prof. V. Narang and other teachers of the Centre for their kind cooperation.

My gratitude is due to Mr. L.N. Malik of JNU Library and I also remember with gratefulness the kind cooperation of Mr. Sultan Uddin Ahmed (Library Specialist), Mrs. Mahira Shahnaj (Library Assistant) and Mr. Fazlur Rahman (Assistant Documentation Officer) of Bangladesh Bureau of Educational Information and Statistics (BANBEIS), Dhaka. They were kind enough to allow me to use rare documents and reports freely. Equally Dhaka Teachers’ Training College Library cooperated with rare books. My thanks are also due to them.

I take this opportunity to show my warm gratitude to teachers like Rabindra Babu, Mr. Shafique Uddin Ahmed and others along with my father-in-law, Barada Kanta Das who are always a source of inspiration to me.

I convey my thankfulness to the Government of Bangladesh for selecting me twice for the award of Indian Government Scholarship. My thanks are also due to ICCR of Indian Government for always keeping me above financial worries throughout my previous M.A. course and present Ph.D. programme.
A special mention has to be made of the Principals, teaching staff and students of the colleges, I worked in - M.C. College, Sylhet Degree College, Sylhet Women's College, Kulaura Degree College, Yaqub Tajul Mahila College, T.N. Khanam College, Barlekha College and Beani Bazar College for allowing me to collect data at the cost of their valuable class hours. My work would not have been completed without their kind cooperation.

My thanks are also due to my friends -- Bakil (Yemen), Jagdish, Tulshi, Buddha, Taimur, Joseph, Minakshi, Rajneesh, Arunim and host of others who have made my stay in JNU wonderful and memorable.

I owe a lot to my Bangladeshi friend Faheem who has helped me with essential books and documents on education in Bangladesh.

I also thank Mr. Ashok, Mr. Vikram and Mr. Jasbir Singh of A.P. Computers and my cousin Sanju for typing my thesis.

On a very personal level I owe a lot to my wife Lipi and my nephew Narayan for taking the burden of managing our family in my absence. And, finally, I convey my warmest affection to my loving daughters Bahni and Tithi whose constant pressure on me for going back to them inspired me to complete my thesis as early as possible.

Lastly, whatever mistakes and shortcomings may be there in the thesis are entirely mine.
