ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my duty to thank them all those who have helped me in completing my thesis work.

I wish to express my most sincere sense of gratitude to my guide Dr. Medha Deshpande for constant encouragement and valuable guidance, quite generously provided, which enabled me to carry out this research work.

From this very beginning stage of my research work she took an active interest and lot of pains in preparing the framework of my thesis. She read all my drafts carefully and made constructive suggestions to make the final draft perfect. She has spared her valuable time from her university work as well as her family responsibilities. Due to her constant encouragement I could complete my research work in right time.

During the period of research I learned many things from her regarding the research work which will be useful in my future career.

I wish to express my gratitude to the authorities of Garware College of Commerce, Pune, for encouragement with all possible help they rendered towards the completion of this thesis.

I am thankful to Dr. Rashmi Hasamnis, Head, Department of Commerce, SNDT Women’s University, Pune, Dr. Mishra, College of Agricultural Banking, RBI, Pune and Dr. K. Ramesha, NIBM, Pune for their help during the research work.

Last but not the least my gratitude is also to all those who directly and indirectly supported me for completing the research work.
