ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At this moment of accomplishment of my research work for the degree of Ph. D., first of all I would like to pay homage to my guide, Dr. Yogesh B. Dabgar, Principal, R. R. Mehta College of Science & C. L. Parikh College of Commerce, Palanpur. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. His unflinching courage and conviction will always inspire me. His wide knowledge and logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. His understanding, encouragement and personal guidance have provided strong foundation to the present research. I can thank him properly only through my work and success in future.

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to respected Dr. M. K. Patel, (HOD), Dr. J. N. Patel and Dr. S. H. Prajapati of Biology department, R. R. Mehta College of Science & C. L. Parikh College of Commerce, Palanpur for his valuable guidance and suggestions throughout the study.

I also thank Mr. M. M. Chaudhary, Librarian of the same college, who consent me to use the library when I needed it.

I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to Dr. M. S. Mali and Dr. B.A. Kumbhar for encouraging and appreciating the work all through the study.

I am also grateful to Facility provided at many stages of present research by Mr. Samir N. Meman and Mr. Ganeshbhai staff personals. I cannot forget to express appreciation to all the staff who work in the Laboratory just because their rich patience and enthusiasm make the Laboratory a good place of Biology department, R. R. Mehta College of Science & C. L. Parikh College of Commerce, Palanpur.

It's my fortune to gratefully acknowledge all my family members for their constant motivation, especially to my parents Mr. Rameshbhai M. Patel and Mrs. Ushaben R. Patel. They supported me, educated me, and loved me. For their inspiration, motivation, generous care and the homely feelings towards me. To them I dedicate this thesis. I wish to thank my entire extended family for providing a loving environment for me. My brothers, my sister and my cousins for helping me get through the difficult times, and for all the emotional support, comraderie, entertainment, and caring they provided.

Words fail me to express my appreciation to my husband Mr. Vijay Patel whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, I be indebted him for being kindly let him intelligence, passions, and ambitions collide with mine. I am also very much grateful to my parents Mr. Bhaichandbhai B. Patel and Mrs. Dharmishthaben B. Patel in law for their continues support, motivation and support in my routine household work so that I could spare time for my research.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the directly or indirectly have supported me in present research and helped to make it successful.
