This is the picture when Community Policing officially launched with the cooperation of NGO- JANAGRAHA, initially in 7 police stations, 1 station in each division.
Photos of the Bangalore Community Police Officers and General Public in weekly and Monthly Community Awareness Meetings.
Posters by the Bengaluru Police officials for prevention of crimes and for the awareness of community policing and making people easy way to approach police.
Community Policing Identity Cards Issued by the Bengaluru Community Policing Officers for the people who are members of Community Policing

Sources: Primary source (Researcher)
Photo taken with the Police Officers of YALAHANKA POLICE STATION and Social worker of NGO-JANAGRAHA, during the time of field visit for the data collection in Yalahanka Police Station, Bengaluru.
Photo taken with the Police Officers of JNANABHARATI POLICE STATION and Member of Community Policing, during the time of field visit for the data collection in Jnanabharati Police Station, Bengaluru.
Photo taken with the Police Officers of ASHOKA NAGAR POLICE STATION and Public Relation Officer of Community Policing, during the time of field visit for the data collection in Ashoka Nagar Police Station, Bengaluru.
Sources: Primary source (Researcher)

Photo taken with the Police Officers of MADIWALA POLICE STATION and Public Member of Community Policing, during the time of field visit for the data collection in Madiwala Police Station, Bengaluru.
Photo taken with the Police Officers of RAJAGOPALA NAGARA POLICE STATION and Public Relation Officer of NGO-JANAGRAHA, during the time of field visit for the data collection in Rajagopala Nagara Police Station, Bengaluru.
Sources: Primary source (Researcher)

Photo taken with the Police Officers of J. P. NAGAR POLICE STATION and Public Relation Officer of Community Policing along with the Member of Community Policing, during the time of field visit for the data collection in J.P. Nagar Police Station, Bengaluru.