ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As I complete this humble contribution to academic pursuit, it gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge all those who have been contributory in the successful completion of this thesis work. I have drawn on the insights of number of researchers and writers in the field so it is now a pleasure and duty to thank the many writers whom I have mentioned in the course of the study.

I would like to express my gratitude to my family who have always been an epitome of courage and fortitude for me. Their blessings have been a constant source of encouragement and inspiration for me and have given me the strength to carry on through moments of uncertainty.

I would like to express my profound gratitude and regards to my esteemed teacher and Guide, Dr. Rameshsingh M.Chauhan, Assistant Professor of English and Head, at S.V.Commerce College, Relief Road Ahmedabad, for his persistent and painstaking supervision and invaluable suggestions throughout the period of this study. Without his guidance, support and personal involvement, this work would not have seen the light of the day.

It is indeed a matter of pride to get as a Co-Student Abhinendra Thakur. Words & expressions fall short to thank Ms. Amrita Romen Basu, Professor of Political Science Sexuality and Gender Studies, Asian languages and civilization Black Studies, Amherst University – U.S.A. Her impromptu response to all my queries should be credited for the in-time completion of this project. I would also like to thank Dr. Rajit H. Yadav, Assistant Professor, A.V.F.S Art & Commerce College, Jamjodhpur, Jamnagar for his help and motivation with his vast in depth knowledge and experience. Prof ; Sir, V.P. Thakkar you shall always be a fond memory of my academia!! The principles and lessons imparted by him are a gift for a lifetime.

I would also like to express my sincere thanks to Dr Neerja Arun Gupta The Principal, Bhavan’s College and a Co-ordinator at Study Abroad programme, Diaspora Studies Gujarat University Ahmedabad, also the librarian of Diaspora centre. This work would not have been possible without her sincere efforts and constant help in providing the material.

I am indebted for the cooperation provided by J.J.T. University, Rajasthan, for their help and guidance in locating the books, material, journals and references.

Finally, nothing is possible without the blessings of the omnipotent Almighty.
