ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very outset, I would like to thank my supervisor Dr. Rama V. Baru without whose support it would not have been possible to complete my work. Any acknowledgement of gratitude to her in words will not suffice here. Her ideas and critical suggestions were a constant source of challenge and inspiration. Her understanding nature was of immense support to me to give final shape of this thesis.

I extend my deep sense of gratitude to the key informants who provided primary data and to the higher level authorities of various Non-Governmental Organizations who replied to the mailed questionnaires. I also gratefully acknowledge the support & encouragement of three large NGOs such as Rural Health Development Center, CINI Moyna Rural Health Development Center and Southern Health Improvement Samity who have been the main source of information during the last phase of data collection. In absence of their help, this study would not have materialized.

I am obliged to the librarian and his helping staff of Voluntary Health Association of India, Assam University, West Bengal Voluntary Health Association, National Library at Kolkata, Jadavpur University, Calcutta University, Indian Institute of Management Calcutta, Indian Institute of Social Welfare & Business Management, etc. for allowing me to consult the necessary material.

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to Mr. Manik Shah Mazumder, Mr. Ashim Das Laskar, Md Ikbal Hussain Laskar who helped in the process of data collection, to Prof N. Sudhakar Rao & Prof. N.B.Biswas who assisted in data analysis, to Mr. Keshab Sil who developed photographs as well as map and to Mr. Alok Chakraborty who typed out the thesis so neatly and gave the final shape of the same.

I am indebted to Prof. Imrana Qadeer, Prof. G. Shah, Dr.K.R. Nayar, Dr. Mohan Rao & Dr. Ritu Priya for their advice and suggestions during the course of my work. The office staff of our center provided necessary support as & when required and Mrs. Rastogi helped me to access documents. My sincere thanks go to all of them.

With great reverence, I thank to Dr. Gopal ji Mishra & Dr. B.S. Gunjal of Department of Social Work, Assam University, who took the pain to manage departmental affairs during my absence.

Last but not the least, my parents, wife & other family members in spite of all the taxing time pressurized me to complete this work. Thanking them would be a bit harsh. In fact, without their inspiration, this work would have never seen light of the day. I consider myself fortunate to have had such a loving family support.

The strengths of this work belong to the efforts of these people while the weaknesses are mine alone.

21st March, 2003

New Delhi.

(Asok Kumar Sarkar)