ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“What we do for ourselves die with us, but what we do for others and the world remains and is immortal”

-Albert Pine

My thesis of “Achievement Motivation, Self-Esteem, Emotional Maturity, Parent-Child Relationship and Anxiety of Goan Adolescents: Impact of Psychological Intervention” would have never seen the light of the day, if it was not for all the wonderful people who have given their generous assistance, continuous support, encouragement and motivation. I express my deep gratitude and sing praises to the almighty God who gave me good health and constant protection throughout the journey of my doctoral thesis.

I can never thank enough my guide and mentor Dr. Vijayalaxmi A. Aminabhavi for her continuous assistance, guidance, motivation, support, most valuable time and her intellectual expertise during this journey of my research. She has been a pillar of strength and a great source of inspiration and encouragement from my first visit till the completion of my thesis. Besides being a great intellectual, she is very humane, understanding and humble. She is so meticulous that nothing escapes her intellectual eye. I have no words to express my deepest appreciation to her for all her support during this venture.

I am truly grateful to UGC for providing me FIP and all the necessary financial assistance during my studies.

I am extremely thankful to the authorities of Karnataka University, Dharwad, Chairperson and faculties of P.G Department of Studies & Research in Psychology Karnataka University, for consenting me for the required permission when requested and for providing all the necessary facilities to carry out the research work in the Department of Psychology. I sincerely thank all the teaching faculty, Sri Kusugal and non-teaching staff of the P.G Department in Psychology, staff of administrative department and CDC, Karnataka University Dharwad. I would like to thank the Chief Librarian and the staff members of the Library of Karnataka University, Dharwad for all their live support whenever required.
Deepest gratitude to the Management Committee of Murgaon Education Society Chairman M.S. Kamat, Vice-Chairman Paresh Joshi, Ex-principal Dr. Rajiv Hajirnis, and Dr. Maria do ceu Rodrigues. Present principal Dr. R. B. Patil, Vice Principal Prof. V.V. Sail, Director of BBA Mrs. Lalita Joshi, Director of higher education of Goa Dr. Bhaskar G. Nayak and the staff, who have granted to me the necessary permission to pursue my thesis and have been a ‘guiding force’ throughout my pursuit in this goal. Their support, guidance and encouragement will always be appreciated.

I extend my sincere thanks to ICSSR Director Dr. Gautam Gawli who have been a great strength of support and guidance.

I sincerely thank the Principals of Chowgule college, Carmel college, Rosary college and M.E.S college for helping me in collecting crucial data and for providing me all the necessary assistance during the course of my field work. I am thankful to them for their generous support and their wholehearted cooperation. I express my deepest gratitude to Sr. Thereza of Shanti Sadan and authorities of Saraswati Ph.D hostel for allowing me to stay at their residence. I am grateful to them for making my stay comfortable.

I am extremely grateful to all my colleagues at Goa and Karnataka University, for helping and guiding me in carrying out my statistical analysis. I sincerely thank all the participants who were very kind in answering the tests, consenting to attend the counseling sessions and providing me with all the information required for my thesis. God bless you for sparing your valuable time.

A word of thanks to library of Mumbai University and Tata Institute of Social Science and M.E.S College, for the help rendered.

I acknowledge the support, concern and cooperation extended by my family in my journey of completing this Ph.d thesis.

My sincere thanks to my mother, siblings, and above all my dear mother in law for being a strength of great support and encouragement, without whom staying away from home in order to complete my work would be difficult.
I express my deepest gratitude to my beloved husband Mr. Troy Pereira for his live support, encouragement, patience and help in carrying out the entire household duties in my absence and being there for me in times of need throughout, without which I would have not completed the research work. My heartfelt thanks to my sweet son Zane Pereira for bearing up with me, for not perfectly fulfilling my maternal duties towards him, on the other hand being sources of my inspiration for quenching the thirst of knowledge in this great venture.

Finally, I am much obliged to Fr. Michael Francis and Fr. Frank Pinto for their spiritual support, prayers and help rendered to me whenever required. I also thank my ever supportive colleagues, friends and well wishers who rendered their assistance and support during the various stages of my work through their kind words and encouragement.

Even though the list may be exhaustive, still there may be some omission of persons to be thanked. Therefore, last but not the least I thank all such persons who might have been missed.
