ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Everything proceeds from the Lord. I believe that this work has become possible according to the design of God. So I give all glory and praise to the Almighty.

I have realized in life that a journey of a thousand miles begins with a step. Thank God for that step which was shaped by my parents during my formative years, the various mentors that I have come across in the journey of my academic pursuit. Actualization of one’s dream does not come easy; it must be through perseverance and determination. It is only the grace of God that calms the troubled waters.

This academic journey has not been an easy one. The myriad challenges that surfaced were enough to rock the boat of success. But for God, the successful completion of this work would have been unattainable.

I would like to express my profound gratitude to my guide, Dr. K. Subramanian, Associate Professor of Commerce (Rtd.) and Controller of Examinations, Sadakathullah Appa College (Autonomous), Tirunelveli. He gave me intellectual direction and spiritual support to ensure the success of this work. He monitored my career progression and brought me this far in my career pursuit. I express my heartfelt thanks to him for all the intellectual inputs given to me during the period of research.

I thank Dr. C. Thilakam, Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli, for permitting me to pursue my Research Programme in the Research Centre in Commerce in Manonmaniam Sundaranar University. I am grateful to her for her pertinent suggestions.

My profound gratitude also goes to Dr. V. S. Joseph Albert, Deputy Principal, St. Xavier’s college, Palayamkottai, who has encouraged me in each and every activity in the field of research.

My husband, Mr. A. Arockia Raj took it upon himself to ensure the successful completion of this work; constantly supported me right from the beginning of my research work till today; walked with me in all my walks of life, encouraged me from time to time; I am fortunate because without his help and constant encouragement, I do not know if the work would have been completed by now. My lovely Children Liby, Celsy and Godson with their love, support and joy have brought into my life every good things. I thank them for their love and support.

I am grateful to my colleagues in the Department who peer reviewed the work and made suggestions that helped me improve the quality of the thesis.

I also thank the General Manager of District Industries Centre, Tirunelveli, for giving the statistical data, and the Managers of Financial Institutions who were very courteous when I approached them for information regarding the details of small scale industrialists who borrowed money.
I would especially like to thank Dr. C. Martin Arockiasamy, Librarian, and Mr. M. Francis, St. Xavier’s College, Palayamkottai, for their help and support in collecting my reviews at our college library.

I thank Mr. M. Solomon and Mr. R. Nainar, St. Xavier’s College, Palayamkottai, who also helped me in my research.

This study would not have been possible without the immense contribution of my parents and my siblings. I say “Thank you all” for your support.
