Acknowledgements

I wish to express my deep gratitude to Prof. Alok Bhattacharya not only for being my mentor but also for my mental and scientific growth. His natural ability to address problems with clarity, organizing ability and optimism is beyond comparison. I am indebted to him for all the stimulating discussions and criticisms, ingenious ideas and encouragement. His agreeable ways made working a reinvigorating experience.

I am equally fortunate to have Dr. Sudha Bhattacharya for guidance. Her thoroughness, craftiness, spirit and foresight is awesome. Her intelligence and balanced personality is very inspiring.

I am very thankful to Dr. Nancy Guillen for all the facilities and cooperation at Pasteur Institute. She taught me how to pursue a problem with grit and foresight. Her humorous and humane nature made research and stay in Paris memorable.

I am indebted to Dr. Prasenjit Sen for his help with AFM and stimulating discussions. His profound knowledge on the subject made the learning process enjoyable.

Dr. Suresh Nair’s help with Differential display is gratefully acknowledged. His ‘trouble-shooting and bench work tips’ taught me to learn from mistakes, and pay attention to details.

Fellowship provided by UGC-JNU is gratefully acknowledged. I also want to thank French embassy, New Delhi, for all arrangements and scholarship during my stay in Paris.

I thank the previous and present Deans of SLS for the facilities and cooperation extended.
I am also thankful to the administrative staff of SLS. Special thanks goes to Meenu Madam for her able ways.

Capable help of CIF staff Mr. Alexander, Mr. Sharma, Mr. Khan, Mr. Mishra and Rajendraji is appreciated.

I profoundly thank all my M. Sc teachers. Learning from them was enriching and enlightening.

I am indebted to my previous and present lab-mates Dr. J. Paul, Indrani, Anindya, Rachna, Ranjana, Satish, Soma, Paramita, Divya, Abhijeet, Alka, Shweta, Prabhat, Rekha, Sonu, Sunil, Gagan, Ruchi, Narendra and Sashank for being helpful and maintaining a friendly atmosphere in lab. Their invaluable support helped me tide over many difficult situations. Our lab-discussions, birthday parties and picnics will always remind me of my second home for six long years.

I would also like to thank my lab-mates at Pasteur Institute Sabrina, Elisabeth, Laurence, Christiaan and Marie for all the professional and personal help.

I wish to thank Jeevanji, Sajjanji and Manojji for the laboratory assistance, ferrying from SLS to SES, and affection extended. I also thank Manju for technical assistance.

I wish to acknowledge Jaishree Mam for help and suggestions warmly extended

Happy and sad moments spent with Sats, Para and Som at Gopalan’s doing ‘PNPC’ will always stay as light and carefree moments in my memory.

Sunil’s helping and funny ways has been a stress buster during my last days in JNU.

Sats has been a very nice and helping friend. His valuable suggestions and timely help tided me through many difficult situations. I wish him much success and happiness.

Som with her pure love, care and rational ways has been my guardian angel. Time spent with her will be cherished in my heart for ever.
My spritpited and ever helpful 'beti' Divya's affection is very precious to me.

Anurag's help is heartily acknowledged. I wish him much happiness.

Preethi's rational views, loving ways and our 'gup-shup' has always revived me. I am lucky to have her as my friend.

Neeva's understanding nature, calm manners, ability to be funny always pulled me out of gloom. Time spent with her will always be precious moments of my life.

Ashima's friendship for eight long years has been a great experience. I thank Alok and Ashima for all the help and fun time spent. I wish them a happy future.

Bold and plucky Sukanya will ever be my 'chweet' baby-friend.

My association with Sunita and Panna for ten long years has been an enriching experience and I wish them lots of love in life.

Memories of my deceased friends Sushree, Pawan and Faisal will forever make me feel sad and miss them.

My SLS friends Varsha, Prasanna, Narendra, Sneh, Vinita, Sanjay, Smriti, Sindhu, Bindu, Manween, Meenakshi, Tulika, Manjistha, Sudipta, Anita, Deepali, Suneet, Anjali, Ester, Dhana, Padma, Sagar, Shamik, Monideepa, Maneesha, Soubiya, Dheeraj, Dinesh, Naseem, Preeti, Suresh, Reetakshi, Tuhina, Sanjay, Moorthy, Gopal in their helping and chito-chat ways have always made me smile and come out of stuck-phases. Conferences and SLS- parties were so much fun with such great group of co-operative SLSites! I wish them an outstanding future.

My friendship with Gayu, Monica, Shekhar, Shalu, Gagan, Umesh, Saurabh, Ajit, Rajesh and Jha since M.Sc days, has come a long way and is going to grow more strong. I wish all of them success and happiness.

I thank Yukiko, Swati, Pinki, Lopa, Mamta, Mixi, Piku, Jaya, Priya, Sangu, Manashi, Vandana, Mridula, Sridevi, Seetha, Fatima for the help extended in innumerable ways during eight long years of stay in Godavari hostel.

Uma, Jean and Nesreen taught me to be a Parisien and celebrate life everyday. They made me feel so much at home in a foreign land.

I am proud of having Dhruti and Niharika as my siblings. Missing them during the long stay in JNU made us grow more fond and responsible for each other.

Dhruti's sensitive and mature ways always provided me with much needed strength and confidence. My sweet sis Niharika has been a bundle of endless-energy and pure fun to be with. She revivified me always with her humorous and understanding ways.

Reflection of my parent's dream is what I am and will be. No adjective will ever match their sacrifices, love, silent support and prayers. Maa's confidence and support with me through thick and thin was very assuring and soothing. Papa's interest and care for my well-being, research and career always made me feel loved. Good simple human beings like them are rare and I am proud of them.

Lastly, I am grateful to The Almighty for all the happiness showered on me and people around me. I have always felt His power and presence during the 'dark' days. May his blessings always be with me!!

Nivedita.
