ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the preparation of this dissertation, I sincerely acknowledge with gratitude to Prof. Nikhlesh Kumar, Head of Department of Sociology of North Eastern Hill University for all the support and help given in many aspects.

My sincere thanks also go to all my Professors and Lecturers in Sociology Department who provided us se knowledge I have received during the course work as well as my research work.

I am particularly grateful to Prof. I.L. Aier, Supervisor of this research work who took keen interest in its completion with commitment and zeal. His vast experience and knowledge helped me in gathering indepth knowledge and made me think deeply in conducting my study. I sincerely thank him for his unique ways of guiding and especially the pain he has taken to guide this work. Without his help, encouragement and support this research work would not have been completed on time.

I would like to express my thanks to Dr. A.K. Nongkynrih, the Convenor of the Department of Sociology for his continued support, encouragement, inspiration and his constant help in order to bring out the best in reasearchers.

I am thankful to the support staff of the Department of Sociology for all the help and prompt service rendered to me in during my work.

My thanks go to the Librarians of the North Eastern Hill University, Shillong and Tezpur University, Tezpur, for their help, support and friendly approve whenever I approached them.

I would also like to express my special thanks to the Tezpur Municipal Board and District Election Office in Tezpur for their help and support in collecting data from the secondary sources.

My sincere appreciation and thanks goes to the Department of Geography for their laboratory assistance. My special thanks also go to Miss Hinotoli V. Sema and Miss Smita Linda in assisting me and helping me to make the maps of Assam, Sonitpur district and Tezpur.

My sincere appreciation and thanks go to my father, Khalilur Rahman, Mrs Zerina Alam and Mrs Mofida Begum for accompanying me and assisting me in doing my field work and making it possible to visit different households.

My thanks go to the Finance Department of North Eastern Hill University for the scholarship which I received to conduct this research work.

I also thank my fiancée, Dr. Kamaal Uddin Ahamad for his care, support and for the trouble he took to print all the interview schedules.

I thank my mother Mrs Asfia Begum, my brother Hosny Muddasir, my friends and well wishers for their blessings, support and encouragement during this study.

Above all, I praise and thank God for providing the opportunity, good health and inspiration and for journeying with me throughout this course of study.

Kausar Qurashi